T	First Broncos game to be televised live.
1	First win in program history
2	Harry Jacoby was called up to serve in the U.S. Army in World War II during the middle of October 1941. George "Stubb" Allison took over as head football coach and athletic director in his absence.
3	Game played at Public School Field
4	Potato Bowl (Bakersfield, Calif.)
5	Griffith Stadium (Bakersfield, Calif.)
6	Junior Rose Bowl (Rose Bowl, Pasadena, Calif.)
7	Game played at Rose Bowl Stadium (Pasadena, Calif.)
8	Game played at Chaffee Field (Boise, Idaho)
9	Game played at Memorial Stadium (Bakersfield, Calif.)
10	NJCAA National Championship Game
11	While Long Beach State was not a member of the Big Sky Conference, Boise State's 1970 contest against LBSU was designated as a league contest for the Broncos.
12	Idaho was the designated home team but the game was played at Bronco Stadium II (now Albertsons Stadium) due to construction taking place on the Kibbie Dome in Moscow, Idaho.
13	Camellia Bowl (Sacramento, Calif.)
14	Boise State would eventually have to return the trophy and $18,000 in cash received form gate receipts to the NCAA for winning the 1971 Camellia Bowl following the discovery that QB/K Eric Guthrie was ineligible after signing a pro baseball contract with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1966 and appearing in three games for a minor league affiliate. Despite these occurrences, the game is not considered a forfeit.
15	NCAA Division II Quarterfinals
16	NCAA Division II Semifinals
17	Pioneer Bowl (Wichita Falls, Texas)
18	NCAA Division I-AA Playoff Semifinal game
19	NCAA Division I-AA Championship Game
20	NCAA Division I-AA Playoff Quarterfinal game
21	NCAA Division I-AA Playoff First Round game
22	Cal State Northridge (CSUN) later forfeited this game to Boise State due to violations of NCAA rules.
23	Idaho played most of its 1999 home schedule in Pullman, Washington due to renovations taking place on the Kibbie Dome in Moscow, Idaho.
24	Humanitarian Bowl [1997-2004, 2007-10], MPC Computer Bowl [2004-06], Famous Idaho Potato Bowl [2011-present] (Boise, Idaho)
25	Game played at War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock, Arkansas. Since Arkansas regularly plays games at War Memorial Stadium, it is a designated home game for the Razorbacks.
26	Fort Worth Bowl [2003-05], Armed Forces Bowl [2006-present] (Fort Worth, Texas)
27	Liberty Bowl (Memphis, Tenn.)
28	Fiesta Bowl (Glendale, Ariz.)
29	Hawai'i Bowl (Honolulu, Hawai'i)
30	Poinsettia Bowl (San Diego, Calif.)
31	Game played at FedEx Field (Landover, Md.)
32	Las Vegas Bowl (Las Vegas, Nev.)
33	Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game (George Dome, Atlanta, Ga.)
34	Cactus Bowl (Phoenix, Ariz.)
35	2018 First Responders Bowl (Cotton Bowl, Dallas, Texas). Lightning halted play in the first quarter. Repeated lightning strikes near the stadium forced the cancellation about two hours later amid forecasts that the severe weather would continue throughout the day and night. The game is considered a no-contest for the teams involved.
36	Game played at Sam Boyd Stadium (Las Vegas, Nev.) due to COVID-19 protocols affecting the ability to host the game in San José, Calif.
37	San Diego State played its home games during the 2021 season at Dignity Health Sports Park in Carson, California due to stadium construction in San Diego.
38	Arizona Bowl (Tucson, Ariz.). Boise State was selected to play in the game but was forced to withdraw due to COVID-19 protocols.
39	Frisco Bowl (Frisco, Texas)
40	LA Bowl hosted by Gronk (Inglewood, Calif.)
41	College Football Quarterfinal at the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl (Glendale, Ariz.)

VHC	The 2020 Homecoming activities were held virtually due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
R	First Broncos game to air live on the radio (KDSH 950 AM)
T	First Broncos game to be televised live.
1	First win in program history
2	Harry Jacoby was called up to serve in the U.S. Army in World War II during the middle of October 1941. George "Stubb" Allison took over as head football coach and athletic director in his absence.
3	Game played at Public School Field
4	Potato Bowl (Bakersfield, Calif.)
5	Griffith Stadium (Bakersfield, Calif.)
6	Junior Rose Bowl (Rose Bowl, Pasadena, Calif.)
7	Game played at Rose Bowl Stadium (Pasadena, Calif.)
8	Game played at Chaffee Field (Boise, Idaho)
9	Game played at Memorial Stadium (Bakersfield, Calif.)
10	NJCAA National Championship Game
11	While Long Beach State was not a member of the Big Sky Conference, Boise State's 1970 contest against LBSU was designated as a league contest for the Broncos.
12	Idaho was the designated home team but the game was played at Bronco Stadium II (now Albertsons Stadium) due to construction taking place on the Kibbie Dome in Moscow, Idaho.
13	Camellia Bowl (Sacramento, Calif.)
14	Boise State would eventually have to return the trophy and $18,000 in cash received form gate receipts to the NCAA for winning the 1971 Camellia Bowl following the discovery that QB/K Eric Guthrie was ineligible after signing a pro baseball contract with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1966 and appearing in three games for a minor league affiliate. While the win still stands and was not forfeited, the game is officially not considered a bowl championship win.
15	NCAA Division II Quarterfinals
16	NCAA Division II Semifinals
17	Pioneer Bowl (Wichita Falls, Texas)
18	NCAA Division I-AA Playoff Semifinal game
19	NCAA Division I-AA Championship Game
20	NCAA Division I-AA Playoff Quarterfinal game
21	NCAA Division I-AA Playoff First Round game
22	Cal State Northridge (CSUN) later forfeited this game to Boise State due to violations of NCAA rules.
23	Idaho played most of its 1999 home schedule in Pullman, Washington due to renovations taking place on the Kibbie Dome in Moscow, Idaho.
24	Humanitarian Bowl [1997-2004, 2007-10], MPC Computer Bowl [2004-06], Famous Idaho Potato Bowl [2011-present] (Boise, Idaho)
25	Game played at War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock, Arkansas. Since Arkansas regularly plays games at War Memorial Stadium, it is a designated home game for the Razorbacks.
26	Fort Worth Bowl [2003-05], Armed Forces Bowl [2006-present] (Fort Worth, Texas)
27	Liberty Bowl (Memphis, Tenn.)
28	Fiesta Bowl (Glendale, Ariz.)
29	Hawai'i Bowl (Honolulu, Hawai'i)
30	Poinsettia Bowl (San Diego, Calif.)
31	Game played at FedEx Field (Landover, Md.)
32	Las Vegas Bowl (Las Vegas, Nev.)
33	Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game (George Dome, Atlanta, Ga.)
34	Cactus Bowl (Phoenix, Ariz.)
35	2018 First Responders Bowl (Cotton Bowl, Dallas, Texas). Lightning halted play in the first quarter. Repeated lightning strikes near the stadium forced the cancellation about two hours later amid forecasts that the severe weather would continue throughout the day and night. The game is considered a no-contest for the teams involved.
36	Game played at Sam Boyd Stadium (Las Vegas, Nev.) due to COVID-19 protocols affecting the ability to host the game in San José, Calif.
37	San Diego State played its home games during the 2021 season at Dignity Health Sports Park in Carson, California due to stadium construction in San Diego.
38	Arizona Bowl (Tucson, Ariz.). Boise State was selected to play in the game but was forced to withdraw due to COVID-19 protocols.
39	Frisco Bowl (Frisco, Texas)
40	LA Bowl hosted by Gronk (Inglewood, Calif.)
41	College Football Quarterfinal hosted by Vrbo Fiesta Bowl (Glendale, Ariz.)

BRONCOS RALLY TO WIN CRUCIAL.COM HUMANITARIAN BOWL

Boise State 34, Louisville 31

Dec. 30, 1999 | Bronco Stadium | Boise, Idaho

"What a great day to be a Bronco!"

Head coach Dirk Koetter pretty much summed it up in his opening comments to the press after Boise State's 34-31 upset victory over the Louisville Cardinals in the Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl in front of 29,283 screaming fans at Bronco Stadium.

The game, which featured 10 lead changes, was the first Division I-A bowl victory in the history of the school.Offense was the story early as the Broncos and Cardinals combined for 31 first-quarter points. Louisville started the scoring with a 40-yard field goal by Jon Hilbert which capped a nine-play, 50-yard drive for the Cardinals.

Boise State, 10-3, came right back at the Conference USA team. The Broncos marched 80 yards and scored on a 3-yard run by quarterback Bart Hendricks on a fourth-and-one play. Boise State didn't lead for long. Chris Redman, the Johnny Unitas Award winner, hit Arnold Jackson on a 54-yard touchdown pass after avoiding a sack. Louisville led 10-7.

The Broncos came right back, again on an 80-yard scoring drive. Hendricks capped the drive with a 4-yard touchdown pass to Shay Swan to give BSU a 14-10 lead. Once again Boise State wouldn't hold the lead long. Just 18 seconds. Zek Parker returned the ensuing kickoff 91 yards for a touchdown to put Louisville ahead 17-14 after a quarter.

It looked like Louisville would build on the lead. Redman had the Cardinals in scoring position, maybe ready to put the game away early. But Shaunard Harts stepped in front of a Redman pass and returned it 80 yards for a Bronco touchdown to put BSU back on top, 21-17.

Boise State helped Louisville out with turnovers as well. The Broncos had a chance to push the lead to 10, but Davey Malaythong fumbled inside the Cardinals' 10 to keep Louisville close. Another Bronco turnover let Louisville take the lead into the half. Louisville's Lou Wallace recovered a Damien Schilling fumble on a punt in Bronco territory.

Ten plays later, Redman found Damien Dorsey all alone in the end zone to give the Cardinals a 24-21 halftime lead. A pair of Nick Calaycay field goals were the only scores in the third quarter. Boise State led 27-24 going into the final 15 minutes.

Early in the fourth quarter, Redman led the Cardinals on a six-play, 60-yard drive, which Frank Moreau capped with a 3-yard touchdown run. Louisville led 31-27.

Boise State came right back. Malaythong scored on a 5-yard run to cap a 10-play, 60-yard drive to put BSU up 34-31. Louisville had a couple of chances to win late, but one drive ended with a punt. The second was stopped by a Kareem Williams interception, the third of the day for Redman.

The first quarter was highlighted by a 50-yard screen pass to Brock Forsey. Forsey, a redshirt freshman, rushed for 152 yards and had a school record 269 all-purpose yards. The Meridian, Idaho, native rushed for 86 yards in the decisive second half in earning Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl Most Valuable Player honors for Boise State.

BRONCOS WIN SECOND-STRAIGHT CRUCIAL.COM HUMANITARIAN BOWL

Boise State 38, UTEP 23

Dec. 28, 2000 / Bronco Stadium / Boise, Idaho

If Bart Hendricks hadn't already etched his name into Bronco football lore, his performance in the 2000 Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl made it a no-brainer.. The senior quarterback earned the bowl's Most Valuable Player honors by scoring three touchdowns and throwing for a fourth in leading Boise State to its second consecutive bowl win, 38-23 over Texas-El Paso.

Hendricks' biggest play of the game came just two minutes into the second half. With the Broncos holding a slim 17-10 lead, he turned a simple speed option play into a 77-yard touchdown run. Hendricks turned up field at the line of scrimmage, eluded a couple of UTEP defenders and then found a lane down the middle of the field. Three UTEP defenders never could catch Hendricks from behind, showing the speed that helped make him the 1999 and 2000 Big West Conference Offensive Player of the Year.

After UTEP added a late third-quarter field goal to cut the lead to 24-13, Hendricks and company expanded the lead thanks to the efforts of punter Jeff Edwards. Facing fourth-and-four at its own 37-yard line, Boise State faked a punt on the first play of the fourth quarter. Edwards took the snap, hesitated momentarily and then broke up field. He broke the tackle just before the first down marker, and then slipped outside for a 22-yard gain.

One play later, tailback and 1999 Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl MVP Brock Forsey pushed the score to 31-13, taking a sweep play 41 yards for a touchdown. In a matter of just 20 seconds, Boise State had gone from punting to UTEP and holding an 11-point lead, to being up by three scores and close to landing the knockout punch.

The Miners responded on their next two possessions, marching 50 yards in seven plays to answer the Forsey touchdown with a field goal, cutting the lead to 31-16. Texas-El Paso's defense held the Broncos on the following possession. It took UTEP's offense nine plays to score, cutting the Bronco lead to 31-23 with 7:45 to play.

The Miner defense again answered the call, holding Boise State on the ensuing possession and forcing Boise State's seventh punt of the game. But Bronco safety Travis Burgher forced UTEP's third turnover of the game, stripping the ball free on the Miner's punt return. Davy Malaythong came off the bottom of the pile with the ball and Boise State was back in business.

Boise State's next touchdown was the reverse of what Bronco fans seen had throughout the last two seasons. This time it was Hendricks who came out of the backfield in a pass pattern after handing the ball off on a fake run. Wide receiver Andre Banks threw the ball back across the field and Hendricks made his first career reception. The touchdown covered 11 yards as Hendricks went up to take the ball away from a UTEP defender in the end zone and seal the Bronco win at 38-23.

Hendricks ended the game, and his impressive Bronco career, with 247 passing yards, a touchdown pass and two rushing touchdowns, while fittingly making the final Boise State touchdown of the 2000 season on a reception.

BRONCOS COMPLETE INCREDIBLE SEASON WITH VICTORY OVER IOWA STATE IN CRUCIAL.COM HUMANITARIAN BOWL

Boise State 34, Iowa State 16

Dec. 31, 2002 | Bronco Stadium | Boise, Idaho

It wasn't the start the 15th ranked Broncos were used to, but the end was very familiar. Boise State, the nation's top scoring offense, scored just 7 first-half points but found its form in the second half and picked up a 34-16 win over Iowa State in the Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl.

The victory capped an outstanding season for the Broncos as Boise State ended with a 12-1 overall record and its third Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl win in four years. Boise State won its first bowl game in 1999 with a 34-31 win over the University of Louisville. The Broncos successfully defended its H-Bowl title the next year (2000) with a 38-23 win over the University of Texas at El Paso.

Boise State trailed 10-7 at the half for just the second time that season (the other coming at Arkansas, 24-0), while totaling just 107 yards of total offense before the break.

It was a different story early in the second half. After forcing Iowa State to punt after three plays, the Broncos' offense started to roll. Boise State scored on their first two possessions of the second half. Brock Forsey capped the first drive, which covered 54 yards on seven plays, with a 2-yard touchdown run. It was Forsey's second touchdown of the day. On the next drive, Ryan Dinwiddie scored on a 1-yard quarterback sneak after leading Boise State on a 10-play, 51-yard drive for a 21-10 Bronco lead.

"I don't think we woke up until halftime," senior offensive lineman Rob Vian said, referring to the 10 a.m. kickoff.

The Boise State defense kept the Cyclones and all-everything quarterback Seneca Wallace in check for most of the game. Iowa State managed just 275 total yards on offense, and Wallace finished with 83 yards rushing and 107 yards passing while completing just 13-of-38 passes.

Three Broncos finished with double-digit tackles. Sophomore linebacker Andy Avalos had 13, Wes Nurse and Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl MVP Bobby Hammer each added 10. Hammer finished with a career-high in tackles, including three tackles for loss.

The Bronco offense added a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns, while Iowa State scored a meaningless touchdown with just 2:34 to play.

The clincher for the Broncos came with 5:20 to play when Forsey scored his third touchdown of the game, his 32nd of the season, to give the Broncos a 27-10 lead. Dinwiddie connected with senior Lou Fanucchi with 27 seconds to play to account for the final touchdown.

Forsey led the Broncos with 78 yards rushing on 24 carries. Dinwiddie completed 17-of-32 passes for 160 yards and a touchdown. Senior Billy Wingfield caught a game-best five passes for 64 yards to finish the season with 1,138 yards receiving, breaking the old record of 1,101 set by Kipp Bedard in 1981.

"(Iowa State) had a good defense," running back David Mikell said about Boise State's lack of first-half points. "It's funny, if we don't score 60 points people say what's wrong with the offense. I thought they did a good job."

BRONCOS CAP SECOND STRAIGHT NATIONALLY-RANKED SEASON WITH VICTORY IN INAUGURAL PLAINS CAPITAL FORT WORTH BOWL

Boise State 34, TCU 31

Dec. 23, 2003 / Amon G. Carter Stadium / Fort Worth, Texas

Ryan Dinwiddie ended his career as the most efficient passer in college football and led Boise State to its first bowl victory away from home.

Dinwiddie threw for 325 yards and three touchdowns, the last an 18-yarder to Derek Schouman for the winning score, and the No. 18 Broncos beat No. 19 TCU 34-31 in the inaugural PlainsCapital Fort Worth Bowl. He hit 19-of-35 passes for 325 yards and three touchdowns to finish the season with 4,356 passing yards. He also completed his career with 9,809 passing yards, 82 touchdowns and just 20 interceptions.

The win wasn't secure until sophomore Mike Wynn, who had not attempted a kick for TCU all season, was well short on a 51-yard field goal try with seven seconds left.

Prior to TCU's failed field goal attempt, the Broncos missed a chance to clinch the game after Gabe Franklin's diving interception gave the ball back to Boise State with 5:41left in the game. But Boise State then went three-and-out, giving the ball back to TCU with 3:27 left.

In TCU's final drive, the Horned Frogs converted a fourth-and-10 from their 20 when quarterback Brandon Hassell completed a 28-yard pass. The Frogs then converted on a fourth-and-one, when Lonta Hobbs just got the needed yards to the 28 with 40 seconds left. After three incomplete passes and a penalty, Wynn came out for a field goal attempt, but the kick was well short, securing the Bronco win.

The score was tied at halftime with Boise State getting scoring plays from T.J. Acree on a 27-yard pass from Dinwiddie, a 54-yard reception from Dinwiddie to Jeff Carpenter, a 75-yard run by David Mikell and a 23-yard field goal by Tyler Jones.

On the first play of the second half, Bronco linebacker Andy Avalos recovered a TCU fumble which led to a 37-yard field goal by Jones for a 27-24 Boise State lead. Another TCU fumble early in the fourth quarter led to Boise State's final score, an 18-yard pass from Dinwiddie to tight end Derek Schouman.

Acree was Boise State's top receiver in the game with eight catches for 150 yards. Mikell finished the game with 101 rushing yards and Wes Nurse was the top Bronco tackler with 14, including 12 unassisted.

BRONCOS' PERFECT SEASON FALLS ONE GAME SHORT IN 44-40 LOSS TO LOUISVILLE IN AUTOZONE LIBERTY BOWL

Louisville 44, Boise State 40

Dec. 31, 2004 | Liberty Bowl | Memphis, Tenn.

Louisville snapped Boise State's 22-game winning streak, which was the nation's longest, in the highest-scoring game in Liberty Bowl history with a 44-40 victory. The Cardinals (11-1) won their third Liberty Bowl by handing the Broncos (11-1) their first loss since September 2003.

Eric Shelton scored the go-ahead touchdown on a 1-yard run with 6:48 left, as the eighth-ranked Cardinals held off the 10th-ranked Broncos on New Year's Eve.

The Broncos had one last chance to win after Art Carmody's 19-yard field goal with 1:10 left put Louisville ahead by four. Quarterback Jared Zabransky drove the Broncos to the Louisville 30 before his final pass into the end zone was intercepted by Louisville safety Kerry Rhodes as time expired.

Everyone expected a high-scoring game in a bowl pairing the nation's top two offenses. The teams didn't disappoint as they swapped the lead five times. The 84 combined points topped the 80 points by Colorado and Alabama in 1969 and was one of a handful of Liberty Bowl records set.

Louisville won only for the second time in seven bowls despite a season-high four turnovers. The Cardinals rolled up 564 yards, topping 500 yards for the ninth time that season.

This was the biggest game in school history for Boise State, a program that moved up to Division I-A in 1996. The Broncos, who played their first three bowls on the blue turf of Bronco Stadium, thought they could keep up with an offense that had trailed only Louisville for most yards and points in the country. But the Broncos, who lost 12 starters from their 2003 squad, finished with 284 yards offense, well below their 511.6-yard average.

The teams still rewrote the Liberty Bowl record book. They combined for the most points in the first quarter with 24, and their 52 points were the most for the first half. Boise State kicker Tyler Jones had a record 48-yard field goal on the Broncos' first drive, and Bronco linebacker Andy Avalos had a 92-yard interception return for a touchdown in the first quarter that bested the 79-yarder by Michael Jordan of Tulane in 1998. Boise State led as much as 34-21 early in the third quarter after scoring 24 straight points.

The Cardinals settled down in the second half as quarterback Stefan LeFors drove them on an 81-play drive in eight plays, which he capped with a 14-yard TD toss to J.R. Russell. LeFors then gave Louisville the lead back at 35-34 when he ran in from a yard out with 2:17 left in the third.

Boise State's last lead was at 40-35 when Jon Helmandollar plunged in from 2 yards with 10:51 left.

Zabransky finished the game completing 14-of-29 passes for 199 yards and one touchdown for the Broncos. T.J. Acree was Boise State's top receiver with four catches for 57 yards and one score. Lee Marks led the Broncos rushing attack with 66 yards on 15 carries.

Two Broncos were in double digits for tackles made with safety Cam Hall leading the team with 19 and rover Chris Carr adding 10.

SECOND HALF RALLY COMES UP SHORT IN MPC COMPUTERS LOSS TO BOSTON COLLEGE

Boston College 27, Boise State 21

Dec. 28, 2005 | Bronco Stadium | Boise, Idaho

It was nearly a comeback for the ages. Boise State's second-half rally came up just short as the Broncos lost 27-21 to No. 19 Boston College in the MPC Computers Bowl in Bronco Stadium.

Boston College's Ryan Glasper picked off Bronco quarterback Jared Zabransky's pass in the end zone with 40 seconds to play to salvage a win for the Eagles, who led 27-0 with 1:30 to play in the third quarter. Boise State stormed back thanks to big plays. Zabransky found Drisan James with a 53-yard touchdown pass to pull the Broncos to within 27-7.

The Broncos got the ball back when safety Marty Tadman picked off Matt Ryan at Boston College's 33. The Broncos capitalized with a four-play drive for a touchdown that was capped by a Zabransky 2-yard touchdown run. Boise State crawled even closer after a big play on special teams. Quinton Jones returned a punt 92 yards for a score and Boise State was within a touchdown, 27-21.

The Broncos got the chance to win the game with one final possession. Boise State drove to the Boston College 5-yard line after a fourth-and-nine conversion and a pass interference call on the Eagles. Zabransky found freshman Vinny Perretta for 32 yards on the fourth-and-nine to get the ball down to the Boston College 14. The Broncos' drive and the hopes of continuing their 31-game home winning streak ended when Glasper picked off the pass.

Jones finished the game with a school-record 151 punt return yards, and his 92-yard return for a touchdown tied the school record he set earlier in the season at Hawai'i.

Zabransky finished with 279 yards passing while completing 20-of-35 with one touchdown and two interceptions. Legedu Naanee had five catches for 52 yards, Perretta had a career-best four catches for a career-high 84 yards and Jerard Rabb and Jeff Carpenter had four catches each.

Korey Hall led Boise State with 15 tackles, while Tadman had 11 tackles and an interception and Colt Brooks added 10 tackles.

BOISE STATE SHOCKS FOOTBALL WORLD WITH TOSTITOS FIESTA BOWL VICTORY OVER OKLAHOMA

Boise State 43, Oklahoma 42 (OT)

Jan. 1, 2007 | University of Phoenix Stadium | Glendale, Ariz.

In what many say was the greatest game in college football history, ninth-ranked Boise State shocked the No. 7 Oklahoma Sooners 43-42 in overtime to win the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, leaving Boise State as the only undefeated team in the country.

Boise State showed plenty of heart and resilience in edging the Sooners in one of the most amazing games in recent memory. In one of the most dramatic finishes in BCS history, the Sooners and the Broncos combined for 22 points in the final 86 seconds of regulation.

Boise State lost an 18-point lead midway through the third quarter, then twice rallied from 7-point deficits. The Broncos appeared to be finished when Oklahoma cornerback Marcus Walker intercepted Jared Zabransky's pass and returned it 33 yards for a touchdown to put the Sooners ahead 35-28 with 1:02 remaining.

The magic began on a stunning 50-yard touchdown play on fourth-and-18 in the final seconds of regulation. Zabransky hit Drisan James at Oklahoma's 35, and James pitched the ball to Jerard Rabb, who raced into the end zone with seven seconds to play.

That play merely set the stage for more Bronco magic. Oklahoma's Adrian Peterson opened the overtime with a 25-yard touchdown run. The Broncos answered with Vinny Perretta's fourth-down touchdown pass to Derek Schouman. With Boise State down by a point, Petersen decided to go for the victory.

On the decisive play, Zabransky looked at three wide receivers to his right, then handed the ball behind his back to tailback Ian Johnson, who raced untouched into the end zone for the winning 2-point conversion. The wild finish came after Boise State dominated the first 40 minutes, making it clear that the Western Athletic Conference champion deserved a BCS berth

The Broncos stunned the Sooners with two quick touchdowns to take a 14-0 lead midway through the first quarter. The first came on a 49-yard touchdown pass from Zabransky to James. Zabransky froze the defense with a play-fake to Johnson, then fired to James, who was all alone 10 yards behind Walker.

On the next series, defensive end Mike T. Williams sacked Sooners quarterback Paul Thompson, who fumbled. Williams recovered at Oklahoma's 9. Two plays later, Johnson scored from 2 yards out to give the Broncos a 14-0 lead with 7:28 left in the first quarter.

The Sooners cut the lead to 14-10 before Zabransky and James connected again shortly before the half for a 21-10 lead.

Boise State's lead was extended to 18 points midway through the third quarter when Marty Tadman intercepted a Sooner pass and returned it 27 yards for a touchdown. But Oklahoma didn't go away quietly. The Sooners scored a field goal and two touchdowns to cut the Bronco lead to 28-26, with the extra point still to come with 1:26 remaining in regulation. After penalties on their first two 2-point conversion tries, Oklahoma finally converted on a pass play to tie the score at 28.

That set the stage for the climax to one of the most celebrated college games ever.

LAST SECOND FIELD GOAL HANDS BRONCOS DEFEAT AT SHERATON HAWAI'I BOWL

East Carolina 41, Boise State 38

Dec. 23, 2007 | Aloha Stadium | Honolulu, Hawai'i

HONOLULU (AP) – Ben Hartman kicked a 34-yard field goal as time expired to give East Carolina a 41-38 win over No. 24 Boise State in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl.

Chris Johnson led the Pirates setting an NCAA bowl record with 408 all-purpose yards. Johnson rushed for 223 yards, caught three passes for 32 yards and returned six kickoffs for 153 yards. But he committed a costly fumble late that almost sent it to overtime.

With East Carolina trying to run out the clock near midfield, Boise State's Marty Tadman scooped up Johnson's fumble and returned it 47 yards for a touchdown to tie it at 38 with 1:25 left. The Pirates took possession at their 39 with 1:16 left and drove to the Broncos 17 to set up Hartman's kick.

The Broncos (10-3), making their sixth straight bowl appearance, almost repeated their last-minute magic from a year ago when they stunned Oklahoma in overtime in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl to finish 13-0.

The Pirates appeared to have the game in hand when they took a 38-14 lead early in the third quarter on Brandon Simmons' 3-yard TD run. The Broncos, however, hung in and reeled off 24 straight points. D.J. Harper's 1-yard TD plunge cut East Carolina's lead to 38-31 with 7:09 left.

Boise State was driving to tie the game in the final minutes when East Carolina recovered a Bronco fumble which set up the Pirates at their 39 with 1:45 left. But East Carolina's Johnson couldn't hang on to the ball as he struggled to add a few more yards to his record, and Tadman returned the fumble for a touchdown.

The usually explosive Broncos looked rusty and unprepared in the first half. They went three-and-out on their first four possessions, followed by an interception, touchdown and fumble. Boise State managed just 3 yards of offense in the first quarter while East Carolina racked up 181 behind Johnson's 106 rushing yards.The Broncos' lone highlight in the first quarter was Austin Smith's 89-yard kickoff return for a TD. In the second quarter, Ryan Putnam caught a 3-yard pass from Tharp to cut East Carolina's lead to 10.

Freshman running back Jeremy Avery was named Boise State's most valuable player in the game, gaining 69 yards on 10 carries, catching four passes for 43 yards and one touchdown and returning two kickoffs for 41 yards.

Another Bronco freshman, Austin Pettis, was Boise State's top receiver with nine catches for 89 yards.

BRONCOS COME UP SHORT IN ONE POINT LOSS TO TCU AT SAN DIEGO COUNTY CREDIT UNION POINSETTIA BOWL

TCU 17, Boise State 16

Dec. 23, 2008 | Qualcomm Stadium | San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO (AP) - TCU's Joseph Turner's 17-yard run midway through the fourth quarter gave the No. 11 Horned Frogs their first lead of the night, which they preserved for a 17-16 victory over No. 9 and previously undefeated Boise State in the Poinsettia Bowl.

Boise State (12-1) was trying to finish 13-0 for the second time in three seasons. The Broncos took a 10-0 lead on Ian Johnson's 20-yard touchdown run midway through the first quarter, but their high-scoring offense bogged down against TCU's fast, aggressive defense.

TCU (11-2) piled up yards if not points until finally wearing down the Broncos' defense in the fourth quarter. The Horned Frogs moved 80 yards in 10 plays on the winning drive, with Turner finishing it off by shedding a tackle inside the 5-yard line and diving into the end zone for a 17-13 lead.

There wouldn't be a crazy, victorious finish for Johnson and the Broncos as there was two years ago in their memorable, highly entertaining overtime win over Oklahoma in the Fiesta Bowl. After Turner's TD, Boise State got to the TCU 14 before having to settle for Kyle Brotzman's 33-yard field goal to pull to 17-16.

The Broncos got the ball back with 6 seconds left on their 33 and tried to lateral the ball after a catch, but Jeremy Childs' desperation flip was grabbed by TCU's Matt Panfil.

TCU outgained Boise State 472 yards to 250. BSU had only 28 yards rushing. BSU came in averaging 39 points and 456 yards, one of the benefits of dominating the Western Athletic Conference. Johnson scored on a 20-yard run midway through the first quarter. It was his 58th career rushing TD, breaking former San Diego State star Marshall Faulk's WAC record and giving the Broncos a 10-0 lead.

Broncos quarterback Kellen Moore faked a sweep handoff to Childs, then handed to Johnson, who broke outside and found an open field. Officials brought to the ball to the sideline for Johnson to keep. The Broncos needed the cushion, because TCU's fast, aggressive defense finally clamped down.

Boise State defensive end Byron Hout intercepted Andy Dalton midway through the second quarter, and his 62-yard return included a nice spin move to get away from one TCU player and a stiff arm against another Horned Frog. Hout was a running back in high school.

Hout returned the ball to the TCU 11, but the Broncos had to settle for Brotzman's 24-yard field goal and a 13-0 lead.

BRONCOS CAPTURE SECOND TOSTITOS FIESTA BOWL TITLE IN FOUR YEARS WITH VICTORY OVER TCU

Boise State 17, TCU 10

Jan. 4, 2010 / University of Phoenix Stadium / Glendale, Ariz.

GLENDALE, Ariz. (AP) -Boise State reached into its bag of tricks again and stunned TCU in a Fiesta Bowl duel of unbeaten BCS busters.

After the Broncos pulled off a gutsy fake punt at their own 33-yard line, Doug Martin scored the decisive touchdown to give No. 6 Boise State a 17-10 victory over third-ranked TCU.

A 10-10 stalemate came alive when punter Kyle Brotzman hit wide-open Kyle Efaw with a 30-yard strike with about nine minutes to play. Four plays later, Martin dove over a tackler from two yards out as the Broncos became the second school ever to go 14-0, joining Ohio State in 2002. (Alabama would also go 14-0 when it won the national championship later in the week.)

The trickery evoked memories of Boise State's BCS debut three years ago, when it pulled out a passel of gadget plays to defeat Oklahoma on the same field. Unlike that thriller, this game offered little drama until Petersen made another surprising call.

The Broncos caught the Horned Frogs napping on the fake punt. Kellen Moore then completed three straight passes to advance to the two, and Martin scored to put Boise State up 17-10 with 7:21 to go. TCU took over at its own one with 1:06 remaining and marched to the Boise State 30 before cornerback Brandyn Thompson disrupted a pass by Andy Dalton, and Winston Venable picked it off to end the threat.

Moore passed for 211 yards. Dalton finished with 272 yards and a score through the air, but was intercepted three times.

Brotzman also made a 40-yard field goal midway through the second to make it 10-0, putting the Horned Frogs in the biggest hole they had faced all season.

Boise State is known for its offense. But its defense did most of the work in this one. Thompson set up the winning drive with its second interception of the game. He returned his first pick 51 yards for the game's first score.

This was TCU's first BCS game, and the Horned Frogs seemed a little jittery, with six first-half penalties and some early struggles by Dalton, who also fumbled a snap to go along with his three interceptions. Neither team could muster an offensive touchdown until the final minute of the first half, when Dalton hit Curtis Clay for a 30-yard score to make it 10-7 at halftime.

The Horned Frogs capitalized on Boise State's first turnover to pull even midway through the third. The Broncos had moved into Horned Frogs territory when All-American defensive end Jerry Hughes stripped Martin and recovered the ball at TCU's 43-yard line. Eight plays later, Ross Evans kicked a 29-yard field goal to tie it at 10.

The Broncos struck first on the return by Thompson, who cut in front of Antoine Hicks, picked off the pass and raced untouched into the end zone in the first quarter.

Dalton had thrown only five interceptions in 279 pass attempts during the regular season, when he earned first-team All-Mountain West Conference honors. But the Broncos put pressure on Dalton from the start; late in the first quarter, unblocked cornerback Kyle Wilson blitzed and flattened Dalton, who came out for one play.

BRONCOS DOMINATE UTAH IN MAACO BOWL LAS VEGAS VICTORY

Boise State 26, Utah 3

Dec. 22, 2010 / Sam Boyd Stadium / Las Vegas, Nev.

LAS VEGAS (AP) - Doug Martin shook Boise State out of its brief postseason funk with an 84-yard touchdown run in the second quarter, and the 10th-ranked Broncos dominated the rest of the way beat No. 20 Utah 26-3 in the MAACO Bowl.

Boise State had turned the ball over three times and was trailing 3-0 when Martin went up the middle and outran Utah defenders down the left side to give the Broncos a much-needed spark. From there, Boise State's defense shut the Utes out and Kellen Moore threw two touchdown passes as the Broncos cruised to an easy win.

"It was a startup for our team," Martin said. "A momentum changer."

The victory was small consolation for Boise State, which missed out on a possible Rose Bowl appearance. But the dominating win against a team that was at one time ranked No. 6 in the country was a reminder why the Broncos rode high in the polls before suffering their only loss in two years.

"Boise State is a heck of a football team," Utah coach Kyle Whittingham said. "When you play a team the caliber of Boise State you have to play better than we did tonight."

Martin's run came after a mistake-prone first quarter in which Boise State kept giving the ball away and making costly errors. Utah wasn't much better, and when the Broncos began finding their stride the game quickly turned one-sided.

Moore, who fumbled on the third play of the game and threw an interception later in the first quarter, rebounded with a 25-yard touchdown pass to Tyler Shoemaker in the closing seconds of the first half to give Boise State a 16-3 lead. He added another 18-yard TD pass to Austin Pettis in the third quarter in a game that was more lopsided than the final score.

Boise State (12-1), which had been ranked as high as No. 2 in The Associated Press Top 25 poll this year and once seemed headed for a New Year's Day bowl, came into the game a 17-point favorite but early on looked little like the team that was everyone's favorite BCS buster. That changed with Martin's run, with the Broncos taking control on both sides of the ball against a team that was a BCS team itself two years ago and had won nine straight bowl games.

Moore, who finished fourth in Heisman voting earlier, finished with impressive numbers despite his rocky start. He completed 28 of 38 passes, including 12 to Pettis, who was playing the final game of a college career in which his team won 51 of 53 games.

Boise State was plenty impressive against Utah, shutting down quarterback Terrance Cain and the Utes running game. Utah didn't help itself by losing three fumbles and being penalized 10 times for 83 yards in a sloppily played game.

Boise State kicker Kyle Brotzman became the all-time NCAA leader in points kicking with a 29-yard field goal in the second quarter. Brotzman added another field goal in the fourth quarter but had a mixed night, getting one attempt blocked and dropping a pass while wide open on a fake punt.

BRONCOS RIDE BIG PLAYS TO BIG WIN OVER ARIZONA STATE IN MAACO BOWL LAS VEGAS

Boise State 56, Arizona State 24

Dec. 22, 2011 / Sam Boyd Stadium / Las Vegas, Nev.

LAS VEGAS - Sixth-ranked Boise State scored touchdowns in five different ways as part of a 56-24 blowout win over Arizona State in the 20th MAACO Bowl Las Vegas

The Broncos, the highest-ranked team in the event's history at No. 6 by the coaches, were perhaps one made field goal away from playing for a BCS title but instead got to be part of a party in Las Vegas before the 35,720 fans at Sam Boyd Stadium.

In what was the final game of one of college football's most successful, Kellen Moore became the first quarterback in NCAA FBS history to reach 50 career victories as a starter as Boise State cruised to its first win over Arizona State to close the season at 12-1 overall for the second consecutive year.

The Broncos started out with a bang thanks to Doug Martin's 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown on the opening play. It marked the longest return in MBLV history and was the first time any bowl game started with a return for a score since Ohio State did it in the 2007 BCS Championship against Florida.

Martin was not nearly done with is heroics, however, as he went on to earn the Rossi T. Ralenkotter MVP Trophy after rolling up a staggering 301 all-purpose yards and two TDs. That total included 151 yards rushing on 31 carries and 26 more through the air on three receptions.

Boise State jumped out to a 21-0 lead with a 14-yard TD catch by Tyler Shoemaker and then a two-yard TD grab by Matt Miller - both coming from the arm of Moore. Miller brought in another one just before halftime to make it 28-3 at the break.

The Sun Devils showed life, however, coming out of the locker room as Rashad Ross took the third-quarter kickoff back for his own highlight play - a 98-yard touchdown. Later in the game, ASU was heading in from the one-yard line looking to close the gap even more but Brock Osweiler's pass was intercepted by Bronco Jamar Taylor, who returned it 100 yards the other way for a stunning touchdown that sealed the outcome.

When Travis Stanaway scooped up an ASU fumble and took it 26 yards for six points in the fourth quarter, it meant Boise State had scored via pass, rush, return, interception and fumble.

"There were two things we really wanted to do," said Boise State head coach Chris Petersen. "We wanted to start fast, and we really did that. And we wanted to finish strong, and we really did that."

Moore's final collegiate outing saw him complete 24 of 36 attempts for 293 yards a pair of scores.

"Vegas is kind of a popular spot for me apparently," said Moore, who won three of his 50 at Sam Boyd Stadium in a 12-month span. "You couldn't ask for a better situation. We were very fortunate to come to this bowl game the last two years. It's a neat experience, you enjoy yourself and there's just a lot of great memories here."

While there was not much defense on display, Boise State did get to Osweiler for four sacks, two by Las Vegas High School graduate Billy Winn, who got to play his final college game in his hometown.

Boise State improved to 2-0 in the MAACO Bowl Las Vegas to help the Mountain West up its record to 5-4 vs. the Pac-12 in the annual event.

BRONCOS TOP HUSKIES 28-26 IN MAACO BOWL LAS VEGAS

Boise State 28, Washington 26

Dec. 23, 2012 | Sam Boyd Stadium | Las Vegas, Nev.

LAS VEGAS - Michael Frisina came up big for Boise State, kicking a 27-yard field goal with 1:16 left to give the No. 20 Broncos a 28-26 victory Saturday over Washington for their third MAACO Bowl Las Vegas trophy in a row.

Frisina made the winning kick after Washington had taken the lead for the first time on Travis Coons' 38-yard field goal. Boise State (11-2) sealed the win when Jeremy Ioane intercepted Keith Price's pass as the Huskies (7-6) neared midfield.

Boise State had to overcome a 205-yard rushing game by Bishop Sankey against a normally stingy Bronco defense. Sankey also had 74 yards receiving, giving him 279 of Washington's 447 yards from scrimmage. He was the MVP of the game, despite being on the losing side.

Frisina was 12 for 17 on field goals coming into the game, adding three on Saturday, including a 34-yarder to open the scoring that was his first field goal over 30 yards for the year.

Boise State, which outscored Utah and Arizona State 82-24 in its two previous Las Vegas Bowl wins, looked to be heading for a third straight blowout when Holden Huff scored on a 34-yard pass with 5:25 left in the second quarter for an 18-3 lead. But Sankey scored on a 26-yard run on Washington's next possession, and Price scrambled for another score with 3 seconds left to make it 18-17 at halftime.

After both teams scored touchdowns on long drives in the third quarter, the Huskies took their only lead of the game on the field goal by Coons with 4:09 left. On the ensuing kickoff, though, freshman Shane Williams-Rhodes returned the ball 47 yards to the Washington 42, and Joe Southwick guided them to the 12 before Frisina hit the winning kick.

The teams traded long drives in the third quarter, with Boise State going 74 yards in 15 plays to open the second half, and Washington responding with a 75 yard, 12 play drive. The Huskies went for a 2-point conversion that would have tied it, but the pass was incomplete.

"We watched a lot of tape and we knew they were a good team," Boise State Head Coach Chris Petersen said. "I don't think all 7-5 records are equal across the board. These guys have beaten too many good opponents and played too much good football that you start to get a gauge and I just knew it would be a really tight game."

Southwick ended the day with 264 yards passing, while D.J. Harper added 72 on the ground. Matt Miller added 90 yards receiving in the Bronco win.

BRONCOS FALL TO OREGON STATE IN SHERATON HAWAI'I BOWL

Oregon State 38, Boise State 23

Dec. 24, 2013 | Aloha Stadium | Honolulu, Hawai'i

HONOLULU - Rashaad Reynolds returned two fumbles for touchdowns, helping Oregon State beat Boise State 38-23 in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl on Christmas Eve.

The Beavers (7-6) stopped a five-game slide and set several records in handing Boise State its worst loss in two months.

Biletnikoff Award-winner Brandin Cooks had 60 yards receiving and a touchdown while setting a Pac-12 record for most receiving yards in a season, passing USC's Marqise Lee. Sean Mannion set another for passing yards, finishing 24 of 33 for 259 yards and a touchdown.

Oregon State kept Boise State out of the end zone until the third quarter, well after the Beavers had opened a big lead.

Reynolds had his first fumble recovery about 12 minutes into the game when Scott Crichton stripped Boise State quarterback Grant Hedrick in the end zone. The ball popped forward to the 3-yard line, where Reynolds picked it up and ran it in. Reynolds tacked on another fumble return in the second quarter on his way to game MVP honors. Troy Ware caught a 6-yard pass near the sideline for Boise State, but Larry Scott punched the ball out as Ware was falling to the ground. Reynolds picked it up and ran 70 yards to the end zone.

Matt Miller led Boise State with 11 catches for 206 yards and a touchdown, with most of the production coming after the game was decided. Miller set a school season record with 88 catches, and was the Broncos' MVP for the game.

Boise State's most successful drive came in the third quarter after Oregon State went 94 yards and scored a touchdown to make it 38-6. The Broncos responded with a nine-play, 76-yard drive spent partially in a hurry-up offense. Jay Ajayi took a shotgun handoff from Hedrick and ran up the middle for a 1-yard TD.

Oregon State finished with 454 total yards, averaging 6.8 per play. Hedrick threw for 382 yards and a touchdown, closing out a difficult stretch for the Broncos (8-5).

Both teams started the game with similar drives, making progress on big plays before stalling in the red zone and kicking field goals. But Oregon State grabbed the lead for good on Cooks' 2-yard TD reception with 4:15 left in the first quarter, capping a 92-yard drive.

BOISE STATE BEATS ARIZONA 38-30 IN VIZIO FIESTA BOWL

Boise State 38, Arizona 30

Dec. 31, 2014 / University of Phoenix Stadium / Glendale, Ariz.

GLENDALE, Ariz. - The Boise State Broncos are no longer just trick-play ponies.

They did score a touchdown on a Statue of Liberty play. This was the Fiesta Bowl, so of course they did.

But once the tricks were used up and the offensive fireworks dulled, Boise State had to grind out this Fiesta Bowl victory with its defense.

Donte Deayon returned an interception for a touchdown in third quarter and sack specialist Kamalei Correa had his biggest takedown of the season on the game's final play, lifting No. 21 Boise State to a 38-30 victory over No. 12 Arizona in the Fiesta Bowl on Wednesday.

Boise State (12-2) lived up to its unpredictable reputation in the first quarter, pulling off the Statue of Liberty play while racing to a 21-0 lead in the opening 10 minutes. Jay Ajayi scored two of his three touchdowns in the first quarter - one on the trick play - and finished with 134 yards rushing. Grant Hedrick was perfect through his first 14 passes and threw for 304 yards and a touchdown. Thomas Sperbeck had 12 catches for 199 yards.

The bulk of those numbers came in the first half, though. Once the second rolled around, the Broncos bogged down, allowing Arizona to cut the lead to eight in the fourth quarter.

The Wildcats had a final chance, using their quick-strike offense to march down the field, but Correa sacked Anu Solomon at Boise State's 10-yard on the game's last play.

The Broncos charged onto the field after Correa's sack, celebrating a successful first season under coach Bryan Harsin with their third Fiesta Bowl victory. Not bad for a team supposedly in transition.

Arizona (10-4) was overrun by Oregon in the Pac-12 Championship and seemed to still have a hangover against the Broncos. Once the Wildcats shook out of their daze, they shut down Boise State's high-powered offense and began chipping away at the lead.

The problem was that they needed to take bigger chunks. Instead of scoring touchdowns, Arizona mostly dinked its way back, settling for three field goals after driving deep into Boise State's end.

Turnovers also hurt. Solomon threw for 335 yards and a touchdown, but had two interceptions that led to touchdowns for Boise State, including Deayon's pick six late in the third quarter.

DOMINANT ALL-AROUND PERFORMANCE CRUSHES NORTHERN ILLINOIS AT POINSETTIA BOWL

Boise State 55, Northern Illinois 7

Dec. 23, 2015 | Qualcomm Stadium | San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - Jeremy McNichols scored three touchdowns, the first one just 58 seconds into the game, and finished with 189 total yards as Boise State embarrassed Northern Illinois 55-7 in the Poinsettia Bowl.

This one was essentially over when Northern Illinois won the coin toss and deferred, allowing Boise State to get the ball first and unleash its talented offense.

The Broncos (9-4) needed just three plays to score the first TD, the fastest in school bowl history. After completions of 7 and 39 yards by Brett Rypien, McNichols scampered in from 29 yards.

McNichols and the Broncos kept piling on as the back from Long Beach scored on each of the next two possessions, on a 4-yard pass from Rypien and on a 1-yard run.

McNichols ran 19 times for 93 yards and caught five passes for 96 yards. He came in tied with Heisman Trophy winner Derrick Henry of Alabama for the national lead with 23 TDs.

Rypien was 29 of 40 for 377 yards and three touchdowns, with one interception.

The Broncos outgained the Huskies (8-6) 654 yards to 33.

The Huskies added to their misery by losing three fumbles in the first half. Tyler Gray recovered two of them.

The Huskies avoided a shutout when Aregeros Turner returned a kickoff 96 yards for a touchdown to make it 24-7 midway through the second quarter.

The Broncos led 31-7 at halftime after Tyler Rausa's 20-yard field goal and Rypien's 16-yard touchdown pass to Chaz Anderson. Rypien added an 18-yard scoring pass to Alec Dhaenens in the third quarter.

The reserves took over in the fourth quarter. Backup running back Kelsey Young scored on a 24-yard run and backup quarterback Thomas Stuart scored on a 1-yard keeper.

BOISE STATE FALLS TO BAYLOR AT MOTEL 6 CACTUS BOWL

Baylor 31, Boise State 12

Dec. 27, 2015 | Chase Field | Phoenix, Ariz.

PHOENIX - KD Cannon had 14 catches for a Cactus Bowl-record 226 yards and two touchdowns, helping the Bears close out a challenging season with a 31-12 victory over Boise State on Tuesday night.

"We just had to prove a point," Cannon said. "Coming off a bad season, we had to finish strong for Baylor Nation and coach Briles."

The Bears went out with a win by revving up their quick-hitting offense again behind freshman quarterback Zach Smith, who threw for 375 yards and three scores.

"I couldn't be more proud of these guys," Baylor interim coach Jim Grobe said. "We've been through a lot of adversity together. I love every one of these guys and they know that. This is a family win."

Boise State (10-3) tried to keep up with the Bears but struggled in the red zone: two field goals, an interception in the end zone and a failed fourth down try.

The result was the worst postseason loss in program history.

"It doesn't matter who you're playing, you've got to get points in the red zone," Boise State coach Bryan Harsin said. "You're only going to last so long; you've got to find a way to put six points on the board."

Smith had some ups and downs in three games after Russell broke his ankle but had a month to prepare for the Cactus Bowl. The freshman from Texas was sharp with the extra work, completing 28 of 39 passes. He also threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Ishmael Zamora in the fourth quarter to put Baylor up 31-6.

Boise State's Brett Rypien moved the Broncos' offense but had his share of mistakes.

He threw an interception at the Baylor 5-yard line on Boise State's second drive and had an overthrow on what would likely have been a touchdown later in the first quarter, forcing the Broncos to settle for a field goal.

Rypien also threw an interception in the end zone in the second quarter. He finished with 305 yards and a touchdown on 32-of-51 passing with two interceptions and a lost fumble.

BOISE STATE ROLLS PAST OREGON IN LAS VEGAS

Boise State 38, Oregon 28

Dec. 16, 2017 / Sam Boyd Stadium / Las Vegas, Nev.

LAS VEGAS - Cedrick Wilson caught 10 passes for 221 yards and a touchdown, Kekaula Kaniho returned an interception 53 yards for a score and No. 25 Boise State beat Oregon 38-28 in the Las Vegas Bowl on Saturday.

Brett Rypien threw for 362 yards and two touchdown passes -- with two interceptions -- to help the Broncos (11-3) break a three-game losing streak against Power 5 opposition. Ryan Wolpin rushed for two touchdowns.

Troy Dye and Tyree Robinson each scored a defensive touchdown, and Justin Herbert was 26 of 36 passing for 233 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions for the Ducks (7-6) in new head coach Mario Cristobal's debut.

Boise State forced four turnovers in the first half, taking a 14-0 lead in the first quarter on Wolpin's 1-yard touchdown run and Rypien's 26-yard scoring pass to Wilson. Haden Hoggarth added a 39-yard field goal before an off-balance Herbert heaved a pass toward the sideline that was easily picked off and run back by Kaniho, who also had a strip-sack.

Oregon clawed back into it with two defensive touchdowns in the final minute of the first half. Dye recovered a fumble on a botched Statue of Liberty handoff and returned it 86 yards for a touchdown with 37 seconds remaining to get the Ducks on the scoreboard.

A 65-yard reception by Wilson to set the Boise State single-season record for yards receiving got the Broncos right back in the red zone, but Robinson picked off Rypien's pass in the end zone and took it back 100 yards on the longest interception return in school history with 7 seconds remaining to make it 24-14.

Boise State outgained Oregon 294-77 in the first half and reached Ducks' territory on eight of 10 possessions.

After Alec Dhaenens caught a 13-yard touchdown pass from Rypien in the third quarter, the Ducks pulled back within 31-21 on a 24-yard scoring thrown from Herbert to Brendan Schooler with 10:07 remaining.

Oregon had a chance to cut it to a one-possession game but Herbert was sacked near midfield, and Boise State drove 86 yards in 11 plays capped by Wolpin's second 1-yard touchdown run.

BOISE STATE DROPS LAS VEGAS BOWL TO WASHINGTON

Washington 38, Boise State 7

Dec. 19, 2019 / Sam Boyd Stadium / Las Vegas, Nev.

LAS VEGAS - The Las Vegas Bowl was always going to be about Chris Petersen. It was his final game as coach, a matchup the two programs he led to such great heights in Washington and Boise State

Jacob Eason threw for 210 yards and a touchdown, Elijah Molden was named MVP after intercepting a pass and forcing a fumble, and the Huskies sent out Petersen with a 38-7 victory over No. 18 Broncos.

That was certainly true as Petersen capped six seasons as Washington's coach and 14 years as one of the most successful leaders in college football.

Richard Newton rushed for 69 yards with a short touchdown run and threw a touchdown pass for the Huskies (8-5), and Salvon Ahmed added two touchdown runs. Myles Bryant added an interception, and six different defenders had a tackle for loss.

The Huskies jumped out to a 17-0 halftime lead behind a methodical offense and suffocating defense, starting with an interception of Hank Bachmeier's pass that was thrown up for grabs on the opening possession and easily picked off by Bryant. Andre Baccellia took a slant from Eason 17 yards into the end zone for the opening score, and Washington never was seriously threatened.

By the time the Huskies went up 24-0 early in the third quarter on a 2-yard touchdown run by Newton after Molden picked off a screen pass by Bachmeier, the Broncos had been completely taken out of their game.

Jaylon Henderson threw for 48 yards and a touchdown for the Broncos (12-2). They lost for the first time in five appearances in the Las Vegas Bowl. Henderson found George Holani on a 10-yard touchdown pass after replacing Bachmeier in the second half after the freshman threw his second interception.

Bachmeier, who started the first seven games before sustaining a hip injury against Hawai'i, was 15 of 26 for 119 yards.

TEXAS CONNECTION POWERS BRONCOS TO FRISCO BOWL VICTORY

Boise State 35, North Texas 32

Dec. 17, 2022 | Toyota Stadium | Frisco, Texas

FRISCO, Texas - A quartet of second-half touchdowns from Texas natives Taylen Green, Ashton Jeanty and Eric McAlister rallied Boise State from a 10-6 halftime deficit for a 35-32 victory against North Texas in the Frisco Bowl, Saturday night at Toyota Stadium.

With the win, Boise State finished the season 10-4, its 18th 10-win season since joining the Football Bowl Subdivision in 1996. In that span, Boise State is tied for second nationally for most 10-win seasons with Alabama and Oklahoma, trailing only Ohio State's 20 such seasons.

Green, a redshirt freshman quarterback from nearby Lewisville, Texas, accounted for three touchdowns - two on the ground and one through the air - and was named the game's offensive MVP. Green was 13-for-22 for 173 yards, while adding a career-high 119 rushing yards on 12 carries.

Sixth year linebacker Ezekiel Noa captured defensive MVP honors. Noa recorded six tackles, including one for loss, and intercepted a pass in the first quarter, returning it 52 yards to set up Boise State's first score.

After being kept out of the end zone in the first half, Boise State marched down the field on its first possession after halftime. Green capped it off with a three-yard touchdown run to give the Broncos their first lead of the game and a two-point conversion made it 14-10.

The lead changed hands four more times in the third quarter. Green's 24-yard touchdown pass to fellow Texan McAlister put the Broncos on top 21-17. North Texas responded less than 90 seconds later to retake the lead before Green found the end zone with his legs again. His 19-yard scamper put Boise State ahead 28-24 with 25 seconds to play in the third quarter. The Broncos did not relinquish the advantage.

Jeanty, a freshman running back playing in his hometown of Frisco, Texas, carried the ball 28 times for a Boise State postseason-record 178 yards and one touchdown. His score came from one yard out on a fourth down with 12:05 left in the game and put the Broncos ahead 35-24.

Junior kicker Jonah Dalmas accounted for all of the Broncos' first-half points, connecting on a pair of field goals in the second quarter.

Dalmas' 24-yard attempt to open the scoring for Boise State was set up by Noa's interception. Dalmas' 37-yard field goal culminated a six-play 55-yard drive with 4:43 remaining in the half.

BRONCOS FALL TO BRUINS IN STARCO BRANDS LA BOWL HOSTED BY GRONK

UCLA 35, Boise State 22

Dec. 16, 2023 / SoFi Stadium / Inglewood, Calif.

INGLEWOOD, Calif. - George Holani scored two rushing touchdowns in his final game as a Bronco as Boise State dropped the Starco Brands LA Bowl Hosted by Gronk, 35-22, Saturday at SoFi Stadium.

The Broncos (8-6) scored on all four of their drives in the first half, with Jonah Dalmas converting a pair of field goals in the first quarter. UCLA's Collin Schlee threw a 5-yard touchdown to Hudson Habermehl to give the Bruins (8-5) the lead after one quarter, but Dalmas and the Broncos answered with another field goal. The Clydesdale package made an appearance and punctuated another Bronco scoring drive with a Holani 1-yard touchdown, putting the Broncos ahead 16-7 at halftime.

Ethan Garbers entered the game after an injury to Schlee and finished a UCLA drive with a 5-yard touchdown pass to Kyle Ford. The Bruins took a 21-16 lead later in the quarter, as T.J. Harden punched in a 1-yard touchdown. Harden tacked on a 14-yard score near the end of the third quarter, then Garbers capped it with a 40-yard touchdown pass to J. Michael Sturdivant in the fourth quarter to put the Bruins up 35-16.

Holani scored his second touchdown of the night on a 66-yard strike with 5:09 in the contest to cut the deficit to 13. After a failed onside kick, UCLA ran out the clock to solidify the bowl victory.

The Bruins scored on their first three drives in the second half to take control of the contest, which took place 12 miles from the UCLA campus.

TJ Harden rushed a season-high 105 yards on 20 carries, including two third-quarter touchdowns. J. Michael Sturdivant had four receptions for 142 yards, including a 40-yard score midway through the fourth quarter that put UCLA (8-5) up by three scores.

The Broncos had won four straight games to claim the Mountain West title and earn the automatic bid to the game.

BOISE STATE'S HISTORIC SEASON COMES TO AN END WITH FIESTA BOWL LOSS TO PENN STATE

Penn State 31, Boise State 14

Dec. 31, 2024 | State Farm Stadium | Glendale, Ariz.

GLENDALE, Ariz. - Boise State's historic season came to an end following a 31-14 loss to Penn State in the 2024 Vrbo Fiesta Bowl at State Farm Stadium, Tuesday night.

The Broncos (12-2, 7-0 Mountain West) outgained the Nittany Lions (13-2, 8-1 Big 10) in the loss, recording 412 total yards to Penn State's 387. Boise State held the advantage in the passing game, 304-171, while the Nittany Lions outrushed the Broncos, 216-108.

Maddux Madsen recorded his second career game with over 300 yards in the air, finishing with 304 passing yards and completing 23 of his 35 passing attempts. Ashton Jeanty rushed for over 100 yards for the 14th game of his season, while Matt Lauter matched his career-high with 96 receiving yards.

Penn State opened the game with a two-score advantage after converting both of its opening possessions. Drew Allar first found Tyler Warren for an 11-yard touchdown on the Nittany Lion's first drive, then found Omari Evans for a 38-yard score to give Penn State a 14-0 advantage after the first frame.

Seyi Oladipo recovered a fumble in the second quarter, setting up a eight-play, 52-yard Bronco touchdown drive. Tyler Crowe found the end zone from eight yards out to cap the response, cutting the Bronco deficit to seven. The Nittany Lions converted a field goal as time expired in the half to take a 17-7 lead into the locker room.

The Broncos cut the lead to three on their first possession of the second half, when Madsen found a wide open Lauter for a 53-yard touchdown strike. Penn State responded on the ensuing drive, marching 75 yards down the field, converting on Warren's second touchdown reception of the night to take a 24-14 lead.

The Nittany Lions put the exclamation point on the contest with just under five minutes remaining in the final quarter, when Nicholas Singleton scored off a 58-yard touchdown run.

BRONCOS BLAST TYLER 22-0 TO WIN NJCAA TITLE BEFORE 8500 FANS

Boise JC 22, Tyler JC 0

Nov. 27, 1958 | Bronco Stadium I | Boise, Idaho

Mahoney, Han Pace Attack in 10th Straight Victory

By: Dick Eardley, Idaho Statesman

BOISE, Idaho – Boise Junior College's rock-ribbed Broncos pushed an already fabulous football record to a new all-time high mark Thursday, crashing to a 22-0 victory over Tyler, Texas in the third annual National Junior College Athletic Association Championship Game. The victory is emblematic of the national championship for teams under the scope of NJCAA rule, which includes all states but California and Washington.

Playing for an estimated 8500 frost-bitten Bronco Stadium fans, BJC copped a 2-0 lead in the first 38 seconds of play on a Tyler safety and was never headed in marching to its 10th straight victory. Sparked by the flashing running of Hawaiian halfbacks Paul Han and Herb Halliwell and the all-around brilliance of fullback Jerry Mahoney, who was voted the game's outstanding player, the Broncos went on to score touchdowns in each of the first three quarters and put the game beyond reach of the Apaches.

Tyler Loses First String Quarterback

Shaken by the early safety, a BJC touchdown only minutes later and then the immediate loss of ace quarterback Richard Staton, the Apaches never got back in the game although twice they drove within BJC's 10-yard stripe. Staton, racked up hard while returning BJC's after-touchdown kickoff, saw no more action. His loss definitely hurt Tyler, but against BJC's bruising forces, it's doubtful that his presence would have changed the eventual outcome.

Coach Lyle Smith's club now sits back anxiously to await an announcement Sunday night on selection of teams for the Junior Rose Bowl game in Pasadena, Calif., Dec. 13. The Broncos are one of three "easter" teams under consideration for a berth in that game. Thursday's one-sided victory is expected to boost BJC chances considerably.

Bright sunshine flooded the field through all of the Thanksgiving Day battle here, but with temperatures skidding to the freezing mark at game time, both clubs suffered from fumblitis in the early going. BJC made it pay off before the game was a minute old.

Safety Comes on First Scrimmage Play

Staton and halfback Leon Fuller both bobbled Paul Brunty's opening kickoff, letting it bounce crazily back to the four-yard line before Staton finally nabbed it and then was smashed down on the six. On the first play from scrimmage, a handoff from Staton to Fuller skittered off cold fingertips and rolled back into the end zone where Fuller pounced on it for an automatic safety and a 2-0 Bronco lead only 38 seconds into the game.

Kicking off from their own 20 after the safety, the Apaches immediately found their backs to the wall again. With Halliwell and Mahoney punching through big holes opened by BJC's bruising forward wall, it took the Broncos only a little more than three minutes to march 44 yards to their first TD.

Halliwell ate up 28 yards in six carries and Mahoney punched out 16 in two tries behind BJC line play led by Harry Kealoha, Jim Fisher and Darrell Vail. Halliwell swept right end for the last four yards and the Broncos had an 8-0 margin with 11:02 left in the first quarter.

It was on the following kickoff that Staton was injured and left the game. Jimmy Sizemore took over and performed creditably, but Staton's loss undoubtedly took some of the punch away from Tyler's attack.

Han Lights Fuse

Han, who had missed last week's Olympic game because of a bad hip and had watched the first quarter of this one from the bench, lit the fuse that touched off BJC's second TD drive midway through the second period. He pulled in a Ned Jolley punt at the BJC 30, flashed to his right and swivel-hipped his way through a flock of tacklers to the Tyler 40.

The Broncos hacked it out in short gains from there with Han, Mahoney and Herm Noblisse all taking turns with the ball. Han capped the 10-play drive when he circled end for the last four yards. Brunty booted the point and it was 15-0 with four minutes to go in the half.

Tyler fired back on the passing of Sizemore for its first serious threat that reached the Bronco three before time ran out on the Texans. Sizemore completed five of six passes for all but three yards in the 64-yard drive.

He hit end Monroe Brewer with a 17-yard lob to the three with only seconds left.

Unable to call a time out after using up their allotted quota earlier in the half, the Apaches had time for only one more hurried play. Sizemore sent 195-pound fullback Jim Leroy over the right side, but the Bronco defense rose up to bash him down for no gain as the gun sounded.

Break Helps Broncos

The Broncos used another break for their final touchdown early in the third quarter. A bad snap from center on a fourth-down punt cost Tyler 15 yards and gave BJC possession at the Tyler 32. Han got all 32 yards in three plays, hitting over right guard for eight, off right tackle for seven and then slipping over left tackle and cutting back to his right to spring the final 17 yards. Brunty again kicked the conversion for the final 22-0 margin.

Sizemore intercepted a Halliwell pass and Larry Corley and Billy Black ripped off 30 yards in four plays to push Tyler to the BJC five early in the final quarter in the last serious scoring threat by either team. Fisher broke through to spill Corley for a yard loss, however, and two passes fell incomplete to end the Tyler bid.

Boise Junior College co-captains Harry Kealoha, left, and Darrel Vail proudly display the National Junior College Athletic Association football championship trophy they were presented Thursday after the Broncos had blanked Tyler's Apaches 22-0 in the third annual juco classic. The trophy was presented to them by Wendell McMurray of Chanute (Kan.) JC, chairman of NJCAA selection and games committee.

Mahoney, who went most of the way on both offense and defense, capped a tremendous defensive performance by picking off two Sizemore passes in the second half to help keep the Texans bottled up. Brunty and Elston Leavitt also had interceptions for a surprisingly strong BJC pass defensive crew.

Tyler lost the score late in the fourth period, however, when Jimmy Wooten, who had slipped behind the BJC defenders, dropped a Sizemore pass form the 30 while standing all alone in the end zone. Han, getting away on the longest running play of the game, flashed 34 yards to the Tyler 33 just moments later, but the Broncos couldn't move from there.

Han Leads Gainers

Han was the game's top ground gainer, notching 129 yards in 22 carries. Sizemore hit on only seven of 19 passes but made them count for 82 yards. Team statistics were closer than the score, with Tyler out-first downing BJC 15-12. The Broncos led in most other departments, however, running up a total net yardage of 237 yards to Tyler's 198. BJC got 228 of it on the ground, while throwing only four passes and completing one for nine yards.

Kealoha was a standout in the Bronco line on both offense and defense. He got plenty of help from Fisher, Brunty, Vale, Eugene Watanabe, Joe Ho, Mike Keone, Charley Wilson, Bardell Bailey and others. Quarterbacks Tyree Kiser and Frank Bishop turned in outstanding blocking performances while Mahoney, of course, was superb on all fronts.

ALIOTTI'S LAST-CHANCE PASS WINS AS BOISE STATE CAPTURES NATIONAL CROWN

Boise State 31, Eastern Kentucky 29

Dec. 20, 1980 / Hughes Stadium / Sacramento, Calif.

By: Jim Poore, Idaho Statesman

SACRAMENTO, Calif. – Joe Aliotti – college football's answer to Minnesota Fats, Amarillo Slim and every other character who mocks the law of averages – saved his best for last Saturday afternoon.

On the last play of his college football career, on a fourth down that everybody watching on national television knew dictated pass, and with no time left for a second chance, Aliotti once again did the impossible and passed Boise State University to the NCAA's Division I-AA football championship.

Aliotti's blooper pass to tight end Duane Dlouhy – all alone in the left corner of the end zone – with 12 seconds left in the game gave the Broncos a 31-29 victory over Eastern Kentucky before 8,157 spectators and an ABC national television audience in the Camellia Bowl.

Aliotti finished the game with a stunning 24 of 41 passing performance that was worth 358 yards, two touchdowns and a national football championship for the Broncos. A lot of those yards went to split end Kipp Bedard, who took in 11 catches for 212 yards, one of them a 5-yard touchdown.

"I feel 15 feet high," said BSU coach Jim Criner, whose Broncos had 510 yards total offense. More than 1,000 friends and relatives from nearby Pittsburgh, Calif., Aliotti's hometown, were watching at Hughes Stadium as Aliotti led the win. The senior quarterback took the win as if he pulled off miracles every day after lunch.

"Never-say-die, that's why we're champions," said Aliotti to the press, a wad of chewing tobacco settled in the left corner of his mouth. "We knew we could do it."

That Aliotti-to-Dlouhy pass came just 49 seconds after Eastern Kentucky, the defending I-AA champion, exploded into the lead with a 60-yard pass from quarterback Chris Isaac to split end David Booze. That made it 29-24 with just 55 seconds left in the game.

The ensuing kickoff went into the end zone, leaving the Broncos 80 yards from Eastern Kentucky's end zone.

Eastern Kentucky coach Roy Kidd felt like the Colonels were on the verge of winning their second straight national championship after that Isaac-to-Booze pass.

"I knew they'd move the ball, but I felt the best they could get was into field-goal range," Kidd said. "I didn't think they could score a touchdown."

With the ball on their own 20, Boise State's offense went to work, attacking the sidelines so they wouldn't lose much time on the clock. Naturally, Bedard – who had the stands buzzing with his fluid moves against the quicker Eastern Kentucky secondary – was the primary target for a couple of reasons. One, he was hot Saturday and, two, the Broncos' other wide receivers – flankers Scott Newmann and freshman Ron Harvey -w ere so fragile due to injuries.

Criner wasn't sure they'd get through the entire game.

Bedard proved to be enough, however.

On the touchdown drive's first play, Aliotti fired to Bedard at the Bronco 38. Bedard stepped out of bounds with 50 seconds left, Aliotti came right back to Bedard at the Colonel 48. Now, there were 44 seconds left.

The next play was the big one. Aliotti hit a streaking Bedard at about the 25 and he got to the 14 before being dragged down by George Floyd.

"That was just a makeup play," said Bedard of the 34-yard gain. "It was supposed to be an out (pattern) but Joe didn't throw so I just turned up."

Floyd saw Aliotti scramble and hesitated, dropping off Bedard to help contain Aliotti.

"Suddenly Joe saw me and threw me a strike," Bedard said.

Then the drive went sour.

Aliotti overthrew both Bedard and fullback David Hughes on successive downs. On third down, a shot across the middle intended for Bedard was broken up by free safety Rodney Bird.

That made it fourth and 10 at the 14 with just 12 seconds left.

"The primary receiver was supposed to be Duane," said Aliotti, referring to the 6-foot-5 junior tight end from Coeur d'Alene. "I went to Duane but he was covered so I went right. I looked back and he was open."

Aliotti fired the pass up and over an Eastern Kentucky player scrambling back to try and head off disaster for the Colonels but he was too late. Dlouhy gathered in the pass and Boise State had the lead.

"All I had to do was get open and then he saw me in the corner of the end zone," said Dlouhy, who added he wasn't a bit surprised Boise State drove 80 yards the way it did. "I'll believe anything of these guys, they never give up."

For a while it looked like Boise State was going to steamroll to the national championship. Riding the passing of Aliotti, Bedard's receiving and the running of Cedric Minter (105 yards on 22 carries), the Broncos broke to a 21-10 lead with 12:25 left in the third quarter. Minter went up the middle one yard for the touchdown.

But then the Eastern Kentucky offense – which had trouble moving in the first half against a Boise State defense that effectively shut down the run – came to life and the game became a question of who had the ball last.

With the darting Isaac leading the way, Eastern Kentucky drove 89 yards to score with 8:187 left in the game on a quarterback keeper around right end. The Colonels went for two and missed when Jerry Parrish was run out at the one-yard line on an end-around.

That made it 21-16.

The Broncos came back to make it 24-16 with 43 seconds left in the third quarter when Kenrick Camerud hit a 24-yard field goal to end a 73-yard drive.

Eastern Kentucky then drove to the Boise State 21 where linebackers Ron Chatterton and Dan Williams forced Isaac to fumble at the 16 and Ralph Esposito fell on the ball.

Eastern Kentucky linebacker David Hill had the Colonels threatening minutes later, however, when he intercepted an Aliotti pass at the Boise State 35 and returned it to the 14. Four plays later, tailback Anthony Braxton boomed in form the two to make it 24-22 with 11:15 left in the game. The Colonels went for two points again but Isaac's pass for Parrish was off target. That ended the scoring for a while, although.

Camerud tried another field goal – a 42-yarder – and was short by feet midway through the period.

Then came the play that had the crowd at Hughes Stadium – not to mention a national television audience, everybody on the sidelines and Boise State's bench puzzled. Eastern Kentucky drove to the Boise State three where, on fourth and goal, the Colonels elected to go for a field goal. On the snap, however, holder Steve Bird took the ball and stood up. He went right, looking for somebody to throw to, but was tackled. Kicker David Flores, the Ohio Valley Conference's career scoring record-holder, stood with his head down on the play. "That wasn't supposed to happen that way," said Flores as he walked off the field. Kidd agreed completely.

"Three points and we're ahead," Kidd said. "Steve just didn't get his hands on the ball and thought he could run it in."

Criner said he was surprised but said the fact Rick Woods, who normally rushes for the block on field goal attempts, slipped and may have given Bird confidence he could run it in.

That missed field goal gave Boise State the ball at the 7 where Bird was tackled. But they couldn't move it. That put the pressure on punter Tom Spadafore who, except for a shanked 17-yard punt in the first quarter that led to EKU's first field goal, kept giving the Broncos great field position.

Spadafore's punt traveled 50 yards this time, putting Eastern Kentucky on its own 40.

Isaac's first-down pass for tight end David Booze was incomplete, his second down toss wasn't. Booze got behind Boise State's secondary, took the ball in and raced 60 yards to make it 28-24 with 55 seconds left. Flores' kick made it 29-24.

"I'll tell you, I was feeling as poor as you could 'cause I let the guys down," said strong safety Woods, whose job it is with Larry Alder to patrol zones of BSU's pass defense. That was the first deep pass Alder – who had a magnificent diving interception earlier in the game – and Woods have given up this year.

"That was a case of Isaac reading the flanker coming across or the split end going deep," said Kidd about the touchdown. "He saw the safety sneaking up a bit and when he saw David get behind him, he threw it."

That touchdown reception set the stage for Boise State's 43-second touchdown march.

In the first half, Boise State ended with a 14-10 lead on two second quarter touchdowns – a 5-yard pass from Aliotti to Bedard with 7:43 left and a one-yard run by Hughes with 1:11 left in the half.

Woods' 16-yard punt return to Eastern Kentucky's 39 set up the first touchdown and Terry Zahner's 34-yard kickoff return to BSU's 48 gave Boise State great field position for the second touchdown.

1971 BOISE STATE BRONCOS

Camellia Bowl Champion

10-2 (4-2 Big Sky) | Final Rankings: No. 7 (AP Small College Poll), No. 15 (UPI Small College Poll)

Head Coach: Tony Knap

Led by quarterback Eric Guthrie, the 1971 Boise State football team provided Bronco fans with one big win after another en route to a 10-2 overall record. Guthrie started the season with a bang, throwing for 297 yards in Boise State's season opening 42-14 throttling of the University of Idaho in the first-ever meeting between the two schools.

All told, he would lead the Broncos to nine regular season victories, including a perfect 7-0 mark at Bronco Stadium. A successful regular season earned Boise State a spot opposite Chico State in the Camellia Bowl, held in Sacramento, California.

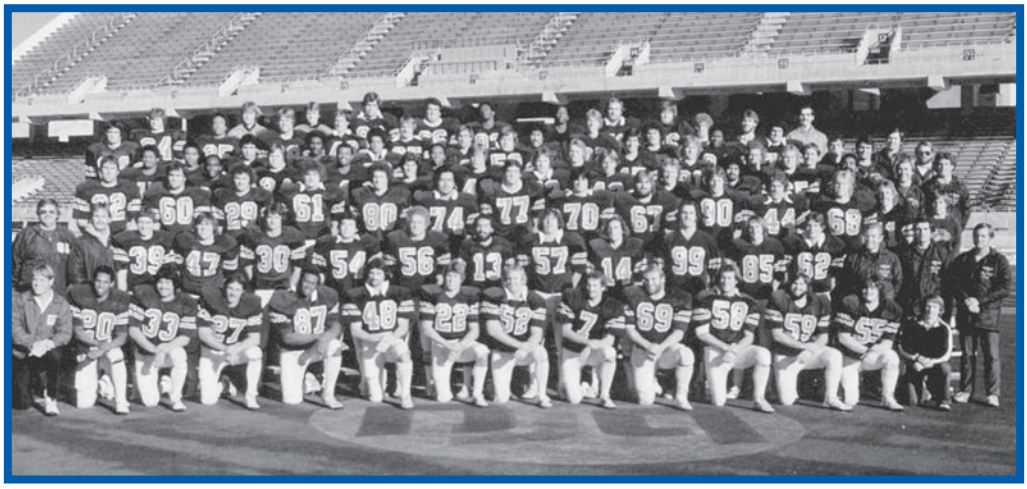
It would take a monster fourth quarter to end the 1971 season with a bowl victory, as Boise State scored 25 points in the final 15 minutes to pull out a thrilling 32-28 victory over a stunned Chico State team. Guthrie completed 19-of-43 passes for 282 yards during the nationally televised game and was named Camellia Bowl MVP by ABC Sports.

1980 BOISE STATE BRONCOS

NCAA Division I-AA National Champion; Big Sky Conference Champion

10-3 (6-1 Big Sky)

Head Coach: Tony Knap



The dream season for Boise State football took place in 1980 as the Broncos captured not only the Big Sky Conference title but also the NCAA Division I-AA national championship.

A convincing 28-7 road victory over Division I-A Utah set the stage for what would be a memorable year. Boise State picked up wins in eight of its final nine games, while outscoring the Big Sky opposition by an average of 17 points per game en route to a league-best 6-1 record.

Boise State's march to the national title included a 14-9 upset semifinal victory over highly touted Grambling on a cold and foggy day in Bronco Stadium. Quarterback Joe Aliotti threw scoring passes to Cedric Minter and Kipp Bedard, just supplying enough offense for the win. But it was the Bronco defense that stole the show, limiting Grambling to just 41 passing yards and preserving the victory with a big defensive stand just yards from the goal line on Grambling's final possession.

The Broncos did not let a ticket to the national championship game slip away, downing Eastern Kentucky in arguably one of the greatest football game in Boise State history. After falling behind 29-24 with less than a minute to play, Aliotti led the Broncos on a game-winning drive that took just 43 seconds off the game clock, but will be remembered forever by those close to the Bronco program. The final scoring play came on fourth-and-10 with 20 seconds to play, as Aliotti scrambled far to the right and threw back across the field to tight end Duane Dlouhy, who caught the game winner in the left corner of the end zone for a 31-29 lead to secure the dream season.

1994 BOISE STATE BRONCOS

NCAA Division I-AA National Runner-Up; Big Sky Conference Champion
13-2 (6-1 Big Sky)
Head Coach: Pokey Allen

Magical is the only way to describe the 1994 season, as an unknown group of Broncos went from 3-8 in 1993 all the way to 13-2 a year later. Along the way, Boise State upset the No. 1, 2 and 3 ranked teams in the country and ignited the fans of Boise.

The magical season opened with a six-game win streak, including a 37-27 victory over Division I-A Nevada in mid-September. If that wasn't enough, the Broncos put together a seven-game win streak during October, November and December. Included in that streak was an emotional 27-24 victory over Idaho, which sealed the Big Sky Conference title.

Three home games during the Division I-AA playoffs supplied Boise with plenty of heart-stopping moments. Cornerback DaWuan Miller's fourth-quarter interception capped an amazing come-from-behind win over North Texas in the first round. Two Tony Hilde touchdown passes to Ryan Ikebe were just enough for the Broncos to survive Appalachian State in the quarterfinals. That set up a semifinal showdown with powerful Marshall, and another comeback which included 21 unanswered points and a late defensive stand that sealed a 28-24 Boise State victory.

Some say the Broncos used up their remaining magic in that semifinal victory and didn't have enough to overcome top-ranked Youngstown State in the Division I-AA national championship game at Huntington, West Virginia. But despite the 28-14 loss, the 1994 season may have been the most exciting in school history as the Broncos set a school record for wins and completed the second-best one-season turnaround in NCAA history.

1999 BOISE STATE BRONCOS

Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl Champion; Big West Conference Champion
10-3 (5-1 Big West)
Head Coach: Dirk Koetter

Uncharted territory. That's where the 1999 Boise State football team traveled. Behind a 10-3 overall record and a 34-31 victory over Louisville in the Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl, the 1999 Broncos earned Boise State its first-ever Division I-A conference championship and bowl victory.

The Broncos shook off a sluggish 1-2 start to the season, winning nine of the final 10 games. The mid-season turnaround started with back-to-back victories over Mountain West Conference foes New Mexico and Utah and ended with a dominating 45-14 victory over Idaho to wrap up the Big West title.

During the team's six-game win streak to end the season, Boise State was simply overpowering. The Broncos outscored the opposition by an average margin of 45.3-20.8 per game, with three of the six games during that memorable stretch decided by 30 points or more.

A Big West crown kept the team at home during the bowl season, as the Broncos took part in Boise's very own Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl. In what proved to be one of the most exciting bowl games of the 1999 season, the H-Bowl featured 10 lead changes and 65 total points. Three lead changes highlighted the fourth quarter alone, as the Broncos struck last and then hung on in the closing minutes for the victory over Louisville.

2000 BOISE STATE BRONCOS

Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl Champion; Big West Conference Champion
10-2 (5-0 Big West)
Head Coach: Dirk Koetter

One of the most difficult tasks in athletics is repeating a championship performance. For the Boise State football team, one goal stood above all others during the 2000 season – duplicating the success of 1999 when the Broncos went from unknown to Big West Conference and Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl champions.

But unlike the previous year, Boise State was far from an unknown in 2000 as expections and preseason hype, which included a top 25 ranking by the New York Times and the overwhelming choice by Big West media and coaches to repeat as league champions, followed the team from the start of fall practice through the regular season finale in mid-November.

Head coach Dirk Koetter and his staff preached a one-game-at-a-time approach, beginning with a season-opening road trip to the University of New Mexico. The Broncos jumped on the Mountain West Conference Lobos early, and set the tone for a championship season with a 31-14 road victory to start the year.

An impressive start to the season continued into Big West Conference play, as the Broncos reeled off six straight wins to end the regular season. Included was a perfect 5-0 league record, in which domination was the only way to describe Boise State. The Broncos averaged 53 points per game and outscored their Big West opposition by an average of 32 points per game.

The 2000 season culminated with a second straight invite to the Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl, where the Broncos met Western Athletic Conference co-champion UTEP. Led by senior quarterback Bart Hendricks, Boise State built a 31-13 second half lead en route to a 38-23 victory and back-to-back bowl championships. Hendricks earned game MVP honors after accounting for four touchdowns. It capped an incredible season for the record-setting quarterback as he earned Big West Offensive Player of the Year honors, was a finalist for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, set 10 different single season or career school records, led the nation in touchdown passes and was the highest-rated passer in the country.

Boise State met its ultimate goal in 2000, repeating as conference and bowl champions. National attention followed as well when the Broncos produced consecutive 10-win seasons and finished the season ranked 33rd in the country by the Associated Press and 37th in the ESPN/USA Today coaches poll.

2002 BOISE STATE BRONCOS

Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl Champion; Western Athletic Conference Champion
12-1 (8-0 WAC) | Final Rankings: No. 12 (ESPN/USA Today), No. 15 (AP)
Head Coach: Dan Hawkins

Boise State had never experienced a season like the one in 2002. Minus one seven-turnover hiccup at Arkansas, it may have been a perfect season. The Broncos raced to a 12-1 record, finished the WAC season with a perfect 8-0 mark, cracked both the ESPN/USA Today and Associated Press Top 25 polls for the first time in school history and won their third Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl in four years.

Along the way, Boise State put together the country's top scoring offense, led the nation in total offensive yards and was the most efficient passing team in I-A football.

The Broncos had the nation's leading scorer, Brock Forsey, who tallied a school-record 32 touchdowns and swept the WAC's postseason awards in the three major categories. Forsey was honored as the Offensive Player of the Year, while safety Quintin Mikell was named the Defensive Player of the Year and head coach Dan Hawkins earned Coach of the Year honors.

The Bronco offense rolled over just about everybody. The 2002 WAC champs scored over 50 points in four straight games and in five of six at one point. Included in that run was a pair of 60-point games, 63-38 win over Utah State and an amazing 67-21 win over Fresno State. Throw in a 58-31 win over WAC runner-up Hawai'i in that stretch and you can see why Boise State placed four players – Forsey, quarterback Ryan Dinwiddie, center Scott Huff, and right guard Rob Vian – on the All-WAC first team, and one more (wide receiver Billy Wingfield) on the All-WAC second team.

While the offense received the majority of the headlines, the Bronco defense proved to be the best in the WAC. The Bronco "D" held four opponents under 10 points, all of those efforts coming during the last five weeks of season. While Mikell was the only Bronco to earn first-team all-league honors, three others were on the second team – defensive end Ryan Nelson, linebacker Chauncey Ako and cornerback Gabe Franklin.

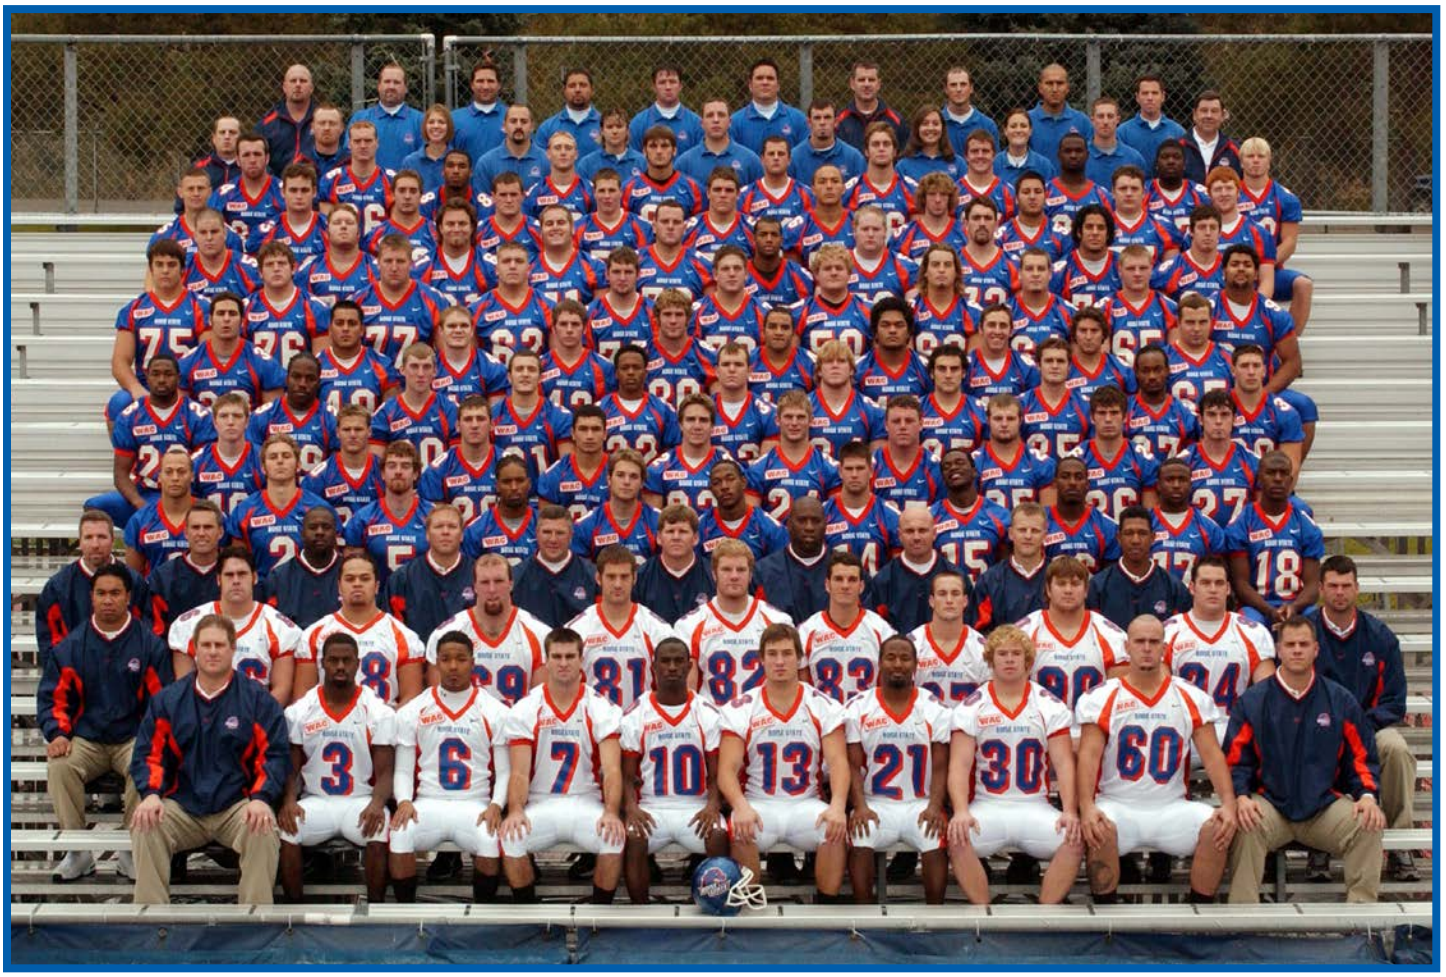
The Bronco special teams were, well, special. Tim Gilligan and David Mikell were two of the top return men in college football, while a hard-hitting coverage team led by Kameron Merritt, Donny Heck, and Brad Allen provided big play after big play. Kickers Nick Calaycay and Tyler Jones both helped spark Boise State to wins. Calaycay finished the season sixth in the nation in scoring despite missing three games with an injury, while Jones was so adept at kicking off for touchbacks that he was named special teams player of the week following Boise State's 58-3 win at UTEP.

In the Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl the Broncos capped the season with the one missing piece that has plagued the program since moving up to NCAA Division I-A – a win over a power conference team. The victim would be Iowa State of the Big 12 as the Broncos overcame a sluggish first half before posting a 34-16 victory.

When the 2002 season began, the motto for the season was "Leave No Doubt." Following a WAC championship, a 12-1 record, a top 25 ranking and a postseason bowl victory, the Broncos "Left No Doubt."

2003 BOISE STATE BRONCOS

PlainsCapital Fort Worth Bowl Champion; Western Athletic Conference Champion
13-1 (8-0 WAC) | Final Rankings: No. 15 (ESPN/USA Today), No. 16 (AP)
Head Coach: Dan Hawkins



For the second straight season, the Boise State football team made noise on the national scene. A year after cracking the top 25 for the first time and winning a third bowl game in four years, and despite losing eight starters on offense, the 2003 Bronco team may have bested the incredible season put together by the 2002 team.

Boise State climbed into the national rankings, where it finished 15th in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll, 16th in the Associated Press Top 25 Poll and 17th in the final BCS rankings.

Once again the Broncos raced through the WAC, winning all eight of their league games. But this time, Boise State did it with arguably the toughest road schedule in school history, winning at Fresno State, Hawai'i, and Louisiana Tech among others.

And this time the Broncos won a bowl away from the friendly confines of Bronco Stadium, capping their 13-1 season with an impressive 34-31 win over TCU in the PlainsCapital Fort Worth Bowl on the Horned Frogs' home field.

The only thing that kept the Broncos from the first undefeated season in school history was a narrow, and controversial, 26-24 loss at Oregon State during the third week of the season.

Boise State dominated its opponents on both offense and defense during the season, winning by a combined score of 43.0 to 17.1. Boise State ranked first in the country in scoring for the second straight season. The Broncos also finished third in passing efficiency, fifth in passing offense and seventh in total offense.

The Broncos were nearly as productive on defense, finishing 12th in scoring defense, 11th in rushing defense and seventh in pass efficiency defense. On special teams the Broncos were 15th in both kickoff and punt returns.

Individually, Ryan Dinwiddie capped a stellar career, earning WAC Offensive Player of the Year honors while setting a NCAA career passing efficiency record. Tim Gilligan, who set a single-season receiving yards record at Boise State, Andy Avalos, Wes Nurse and Julius Roberts joined Dinwiddie on the All-WAC first team.

Boise State also placed 11 other Broncos on either the All-WAC second team or on the All-WAC honorable mention team. Nine of the 11 starters on defense earned All-WAC recognition, while six starters on offense and the Broncos' field goal kicker also earned All-WAC honors.

2004 BOISE STATE BRONCOS

Western Athletic Conference Champion; AutoZone Liberty Bowl Participant
11-1 (8-0 WAC) | Final Rankings: No. 10 (BCS), No. 12 (AP), No. 13 (ESPN/USA Today)
Head Coach: Dan Hawkins

The 2004 football season is one that will go down in the history books as one of the greatest in school history at the time. Coming into the year, few expected it could get any better than what had happened over the previous two seasons. They were wrong.

After back-to-back one-loss regular seasons and the loss of 12 starters from the 2003 team, experts thought Boise State's run among the nation's elite was over. They were wrong as well.

Despite fielding the second-youngest team in the country, and despite losing five starters to injury that forced the Broncos to turn to young untested players, the 2004 Boise State team found a way to accomplish a number of things most thought were out of its reach.

The Broncos picked up their first-ever win over a Pac-10 team, climbed as high as No. 10 in both major polls while peaking at No. 7 in the BCS standings, and finished the regular season undefeated for the first time as a four-year school.

It all started with 65-7 manhandling of rival Idaho, the largest margin of victory in the history of the rivalry. Boise State racked up 572 yards, while limiting Idaho to 212, 71 of which came on one play with 1:20 left in the game.

Along the way it included a win over Oregon State (the first ever over a Pac-10 team), thrilling last-second wins against BYU, Tulsa and San José State, and the Broncos' third straight undefeated WAC season

The Broncos accomplished nearly every goal they set for the season – an undefeated regular season record, a third straight WAC title, a WAC-record 26 straight league wins and 22 straight overall wins before a heartbreaking 44-40 loss to Louisville in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

Nationally, the Broncos finally received the recognition they deserved during the three-season run in the top 25. Boise State got front page coverage in USA Today as well as feature articles in the Sporting News, Sports Illustrated, ESPN The Magazine and the New York Times, among others.

Individual honors came as well. Daryn Colledge, Tyler Jones, and Jared Zabransky received All-America honors, with Jones being named a finalist for the prestigious Lou Groza Award honoring the nation's top kicker. In all, 16 Broncos were named to the All-WAC team, with six separate Broncos – Colledge, Jones, T.J. Acree, Andy Avalos, Gabe Franklin and Korey Hall – earning first-team All-WAC honors.

2005 BOISE STATE BRONCOS

Western Athletic Conference Champion; MPC Computers Bowl Participant
9-4 (7-1 WAC)
Head Coach: Dan Hawkins

The waters weren't as smooth on the journey but the end result was just as nice. Unlike the previous two seasons, Boise State ran into some adversity during the 2005 season, but the Broncos battled through it and the result was a character-building fourth straight Western Athletic Conference championship – a run of championships that tied USC for the longest current streak in the country.

Few teams in WAC history have been able to match the dominance that Boise State continued in 2005. Other than the BYU team that won nine straight titles in the late 1970s and early '80s, no WAC team except Boise State had managed to win four straight league titles.

The Broncos continued their dominance with one of the youngest teams in college football. The Broncos started just four seniors, the fewest in the country. Boise State also had 23 freshmen or sophomores on the two-deep roster, including four freshmen who started at least one game.

Three Broncos – Daryn Colledge, Alex Guerrero and Korey Hall – were named first-team All-WAC while four others – Lee Marks, Drisan James, Andrew Browning and Marty Tadman – earned second-team honors. Freshmen Ryan Clady and Orlando Scandrick each were named to freshman All-America team, while punt returner Quinton Jones earned second-team All-America honors from the Sporting News and honorable mention All-America honors from SI.com.

The season didn't get off to the start the Broncos had hoped for with losses at Georgia and Oregon State. The Broncos rallied, winning their next seven games, including an impressive 49-14 win over WAC co-champion Nevada. Boise State also had impressive wins over Bowling Green, San José State, Utah State and New Mexico State in that stretch, with a thrilling win over Hawai'i and a win over Portland State to run its record to 7-2.

After a loss at Fresno State snapped Boise State's conference record winning streak at 31 games, the Broncos bounced back with wins against archrival Idaho (the seventh straight over the Vandals) and Louisiana Tech to claim the school's fourth-straight WAC crown and sixth conference title in seven years.

A heart-breaking 27-21 loss to Boston College in the MPC Computers Bowl ended a season that showed the character and resolve of the 2005 WAC champions. Trailing the Eagles 27-0 late in the fourth quarter, the Broncos stormed back, only to lose when they had a pass intercepted in the end zone with just over a minute to play. Much like the 2005 season as a whole, the bowl game showed Boise State's will to win and character to overcome early adversity.

2006 BOISE STATE BRONCOS

Tostitos Fiesta Bowl Champion; Western Athletic Conference Champion
13-0 (8-0 WAC) | Final Rankings: No. 5 (AP), No. 6 (ESPN/USA Today), No. 8 (BCS)
Head Coach: Chris Petersen

With apologies to the 1980 season and the three-year run from 2002-2004 when Boise State compiled a 36-3 record and won three straight Western Athletic Conference championships without losing a league game, there is no doubt that the 2006 season was the greatest in school history.

The Broncos capped a perfect 13-0 season with a 43-42 overtime win over national-power Oklahoma in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, which will go down in history as one of the greatest college football games ever played.

"Circus" – the hook and lateral play from Jared Zabransky to Drisan James to Jerard Rabb for the tying touchdown with seconds to play – and "Statue Left" – the Statue of Liberty play that saw Zabransky stick the ball behind his back with Ian Johnson grabbing it and racing to the end zone for the game-winning 2-point conversion – will forever be etched in the memories of Bronco fans. As will Vinny Perretta's tailback option touchdown pass to Derek Schouman after quarterback Zabransky went in motion on fourth-and-two in overtime that set up "Statue Left."

The New York Times called it "…a dizzying, riveting, back-and-forth game that will be remembered as one of the most exciting in college football history," while Pat Forde of ESPN.com said "…beyond the big picture was the delicious, utterly improbable manner in which the Broncos did it. And true genius. No coaching staff has ever ended a game with so much daring."

Individually the season was much more than one win that resulted in Boise State finishing the season a school-best fifth in the Associated Press Top 25 and sixth in the USA Today coaches poll. Head coach Chris Petersen earned the "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year Award while Ian Johnson earned first-team All-America recognition from SI.com and CBSSportsline.com, second-team All-America honors from the Sporting News and third-team All-America accolades from the Associated Press. Ryan Clady was named second-team All-America pick by SI.com.

Linebacker Korey Hall earned WAC Defensive Player of the Year honors, leading 12 players who were named either first- or second-team All-WAC. On defense joining Hall as a first-team selection was defensive tackle Andrew Browning. Safety Marty Tadman earned second-team recognition along with linebacker Colt Brooks.

On offense Johnson, who led the nation in touchdowns and scoring and finished second in rushing, and Clady claimed first-team honors along with wide receiver Legedu Naanee and tight end Derek Schouman. Offensive guard Jeff Cavender was a second-team all-league choice while on special teams kicker Anthony Montgomery was a first-team All-WAC pick and punter Kyle Stringer was a second-teamer.

2008 BOISE STATE BRONCOS

Western Athletic Conference Champion; SDCCU Poinsettia Bowl Participant
12-1 (8-0 WAC) | Final Rankings: No. 9 (BCS), No. 11 (AP), No. 13 (ESPN/USA Today)
Head Coach: Chris Petersen

The 2008 Boise State football season started in a way that was very unfamiliar to Bronco Nation. For the first time in six seasons the Broncos were not the defending Western Athletic Conference Champions, and their journey to regaining the conference title would come on the arm of a freshman quarterback and the support of an inexperienced offensive line.

Skeptics were quickly turned to believers once again, however, as the Broncos rolled to a perfect 12-0 regular season record, 8-0 in the WAC, en route to their sixth conference championship in seven seasons.

Along the way Boise State made history, first with Kellen Moore who became the only freshman quarterback in school history to start a season opener. Just weeks later the Broncos earned their first ever road win against a Pac-10/BCS conference school with an exciting 37-32 win at the University of Oregon.

Their big win over the Ducks put the Broncos into the national rankings at No. 19, just four weeks into the season. Boise State would climb as high as No. 9 in the Associated Press Top-25 and would maintain that spot for five consecutive polls. After their only stumble of the season, a 17-16 loss to No. 13 TCU in the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl, the Broncos finished the regular season ranked No. 11 in both the BCS and the AP Polls.

One of the keys to Boise State's success in the national rankings was the team's offensive firepower in the second half of the season. After a few weeks of adjusting to a new signal caller, the offense really began to roll. In the final five games of the regular season Boise State averaged 49 points per game, including a 61-point effort against Fresno State to finish the season.

But despite all of the excitement on offense, the real story of the year was the dominating Bronco defense that led the WAC in total defense (308.2 yards per game); pass efficiency defense (94.4 rating) and scoring defense (12.6 points per game), which was the fourth fewest point per game average for a season in school history. It was no surprise then, that the Broncos would earn 12 conference awards at the end of the year, including Head Coach Chris Petersen's first-ever WAC Coach of the Year honor. Petersen was also named a finalist for the Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year award. He was joined by wide receiver Jeremy Childs, cornerback Kyle Wilson, offensive lineman Andrew Woodruff, defensive end Ryan Winterswyk and linebacker Ellis Powers, who were all named First Team All-WAC. Boise State also received Second Team All-WAC honors for six different players; Wilson (as a specialist), Moore, wide receiver Austin Pettis, running back Ian Johnson, defensive end Mike T. Williams and safety Jeron Johnson.

2009 BOISE STATE BRONCOS

Tostitos Fiesta Bowl Champion; Western Athletic Conference Champion
14-0 (8-0 WAC) | Final Rankings: No. 4 (AP), No. 4 (ESPN/USA Today), No. 6 (BCS)
Head Coach: Chris Petersen

The Boise State football team kicked-off the 2009 season with lofty expectations, as the Broncos looked to defend their Western Athletic Conference championship and improve upon a near perfect season in 2008. Led by a talented bunch of experienced young players, Boise State managed to surpass all of the preseason hype en route to another historic season.

The Broncos opened the season ranked No. 14, which marked the highest preseason ranking ever for Boise State. It didn't take long for the Broncos to prove they were worthy of the early season praise either, as they put together an impressive 13-0 regular season record with an 8-0 record against WAC opponents. Boise State capped its incredible year with a 17-10 win over No. 4 TCU in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, which marked the second Fiesta Bowl victory for the Broncos in four years.

Boise State used an impressive 19-8 win over No. 16 Oregon in the Broncos' highly anticipated season opener to catapult them through the next 12 weeks of the season. Boise State would roll through its regular season schedule with only one game being played within single digit scoring (Tulsa, 28-21).

Their dominating play led the Broncos to historic levels in both the AP and USA Today Coaches Polls. Boise State's quick rise up the national rankings first made history on Sept. 20 as the Broncos achieved the highest regular season ranking (No. 8) in program history. Boise State managed to break the record again just one week later as the Broncos moved up to No. 5 nationally. Following the Fiesta Bowl victory, Boise State reached its highest ever national ranking at No. 4 in both the AP and Coaches polls.

The Broncos enjoyed another season of high powered offense that led the nation in scoring at 42.2 points per game. Boise State topped the 40-point mark 10 different times throughout the season, including four games scoring over 50 points. The Broncos maintained a balanced offensive attack that boasted the No. 26 rushing offense (186.07 yards per game) and No. 29 passing offense (264.14 ypg) in the nation. As a unit Boise State finished 2009 ranked 10th in total offense (450.21 ypg).

Defensively the Broncos were equally as dominant, holding opponents to just 17.1 points per game throughout the season. Boise State boasted the No. 14 defense in the country having allowed just 300.21 yards per game on the year. Similar to the Bronco offense, Boise State was balanced on defense with the No. 21 pass defense (179.86 ypg) and No. 28 rush defense (120.36 ypg) in the nation.

Following their dominating performance in conference play the Broncos received 11 All-WAC honors, including a pair of high individual honors by head coach Chris Petersen and sophomore quarterback Kellen Moore. Petersen received his second WAC Coach of the Year award, while Moore was voted WAC Offensive Player of the Year for the first time in his career.

Moore was joined by five other players in receiving first-team All-WAC honors. On offense, junior wide receivers Austin Pettis and Titus Young, and sophomore offensive lineman Nate Potter were named first-team all-conference honorees. On defense, junior defensive end Ryan Winterswyk and senior cornerback Kyle Wilson also earned first-team honors. Young also was voted first-team All-WAC as a specialist.

Boise State filled four spots on the All-WAC second team, as junior running back Jeremy Avery, sophomore defensive tackle Billy Winn, junior linebacker Winston Venable and junior safety Jeron Johnson received second-team nominations.

2010 BOISE STATE BRONCOS

MAACO Bowl Las Vegas Champion; Western Athletic Conference Champion
12-1 (7-1 WAC) | Final Rankings: No. 7 (ESPN/USA Today), No. 9 (AP), No. 10 (BCS)
Head Coach: Chris Petersen

Boise State football added another chapter to its storied history in 2010. Armed with the highest preseason ranking in program history, 21 starters returned from an undefeated 2009 season and 2010 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl title with their sights set on greatness.

A third-consecutive Western Athletic Conference Championship and a 26-3 victory over No. 19 Utah in MAACO Bowl Las Vegas capped a magical season in which the Broncos achieved a level of success reached by few of their predecessors, collectively and individually.

The Broncos dominated on both sides of the ball, finishing second-nationally in both total offense (521.31) and total defense (254.69), the only team in the country to rank in the top five in each statistical category. Offensively, Boise State also finished second-nationally in scoring offense (45.08) and pass efficiency (179.94), third-nationally in sacks allowed (0.62) and sixth-nationally in passing offense (321.08). Defensively, the Broncos also finished second-nationally in scoring defense (12.77), led the nation in sacks (3.69), ranked second in the country in both tackles-for-loss (8.38) and pass efficiency defense (95.19), fourth-nationally in pass defense (150.92) and seventh-nationally in rushing defense (103.77).

Redshirt junior quarterback Kellen Moore became the first Boise State player to be invited to the Heisman Trophy ceremony. The first Heisman finalist in school history finished fourth after leading the nation in passing efficiency (182.63). Moore was also a finalist for the Maxwell and Davey O'Brien Awards, earned All-America honors from the Football Writers Association of America, was named WAC Co-Offensive Player of the Year.

Moore ascended to the top of the Boise State record books in nearly every career passing statistic. At the end of year he held the No. 1 spot in career total offense, passing yards, passing touchdowns, pass completions and passing attempts.

Moore's prolific passing numbers have been aided by a host of quality receivers. Seniors Austin Pettis and Titus Young etched their names in Boise State history throughout the season as well. Pettis spent the season extending his school record for receiving touchdowns, while also reaching the top of the all-time list in receptions. Young flew past defenses for his second-consecutive 1,000-yard receiving season, to make him the career leader in receiving yards.

Moore, Pettis and Young were each repeat All-WAC First Team selections, as well as junior left tackle Nate Potter. Redshirt junior center Thomas Byrd also earned a nod to the first team. Redshirt junior running back Doug Martin muscled his way to more than 1,000 yards on the ground during the regular season, becoming the 16th Bronco rusher to reach the milestone. Martin also garnered a spot on the All-WAC First Team, finishing with 1,260 yards, the sixth-highest total in school history. With once season left on his already stellar career, Martin had already cracked the career rushing top 10.

The Boise State defense was once again led by Ryan Winterswyk at defensive end. Winterswyk, a redshirt senior, was named first-team All-WAC for the third-consecutive season. Also named to the conference's top team from the Boise State defensive line was junior defensive end Shea McClellin. The Broncos' dominant defensive backfield was well-represented on the all-conference team, as safeties George Iloka (junior), Jeron Johnson (redshirt senior) and and nickel Winston Venable (senior), all garnered their first All-WAC First Team honors.

Junior linebacker Byron Hout, redshirt senior cornerback Brandyn Thompson and redshirt junior defensive end Billy Winn each earned second-team All-WAC consideration.

The Broncos to a 12-1 record and claimed Boise State's eighth WAC title in 10 seasons in the league. Boise State closed its 10-year membership in the WAC with a 75-5 overall record, including a 40-0 mark at home.

2011 BOISE STATE BRONCOS

MAACO Bowl Las Vegas Champion; Western Athletic Conference Champion
12-1 (6-1 WAC) | Final Rankings: No. 6 (ESPN/USA Today), No. 7 (BCS), No. 8 (AP)
Head Coach: Chris Petersen

In 2011, its first year as a member of the Mountain West, Boise State came to its new home with all the expectations of past greatness in tow. The Broncos donned a No.5 ranking in the AP preseason poll and were picked as the favorite to win the conference title.

For the third-consecutive season the Broncos challenged themselves in the first game of the season by facing a ranked opponent. Boise State traveled to the Georgia Dome for its season opener to face No. 19 Georgia, a team that would go on to be crowned SEC West Champions. The Broncos left Atlanta with an impressive 35-21 win and the program's first victory against an SEC team, setting the stage for yet another year destined for the history books.

Though a conference championship slipped through the team's fingertips in its lone loss of the season Nov. 12 against TCU (36-35), the season was far from lost. Quarterback Kellen Moore and the rest of the Bronco senior class capped their astonishing careers with a 56-24 thrashing of Arizona State for Boise State's second-consecutive MAACO Bowl Las Vegas Championship and third-straight bowl win. The win over the Sun Devils gave the seniors a school-record 50 wins in their careers. Moore, who quarterbacked the Broncos to a 50-3 record during the stretch, set an NCAA record for career wins at the position.

Boise State finished the year 12-1, becoming the first team since 1900 to post four-straight 12-win seasons. The aforementioned senior class is the 10th-straight four-year class at Boise State to win at least 40 games. Two of the stalwarts of the departing class, Moore and left tackle Nate Potter, closed their careers with All-America honors. Potter was a consensus All-American on the field and a first-team Academic All-American in the classroom.

Redshirt freshman wide receiver Matt Miller provided a glimpse at the future with 679 receiving yards and nine scores to earn postseason honors of his own. Miller was named first-team freshman All-America by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) and second-team freshman All-America by Yahoo Sports.

The offense was once again Boise State's calling card, ranking fifth in the country in scoring at 44.23 points per game and ninth in total offense (481.31 yards per game). Redshirt senior Tyler Shoemaker became Moore's favorite red zone target, hauling in a school-record 16 touchdowns from his wide receiver position. Senior Doug Martin led the ground attack, rushing for 1,299 yards and 16 touchdowns.

Moore was named the MW Offensive Player of the Year, leading a contingent of 12 Broncos named all-conference. Potter, Martin and Shoemaker joined their signal caller on the offensive first team. Seniors Tyrone Crawford, Shea McClellin and George Iloka garnered first-team honors on defense.

The defensive trio led a squad that held opponents to 18.69 points per contest, ranking No. 12 nationally.

The Broncos' on-field results translated to unparalleled success in April's NFL Draft. A school-record six players were selected, including first-round picks McClellin (No. 19) and Martin (No. 31). Crawford (third round, No. 81), Iloka (fifth round, No. 167), Winn (sixth round, No. 205) and Potter (seventh round, No. 221) also heard their names called.

2012 BOISE STATE BRONCOS

MAACO Bowl Las Vegas Champion; Mountain West Co-Champion
11-2 (7-1 MW) | Final Rankings: No. 14 (USA Today/Coaches), No. 18 (AP), No. 19 (BCS)
Head Coach: Chris Petersen

In 2012, the Boise State football team was surrounded by question marks after losing six players to the National Football League Draft, including first-round selections Shea McClellin and Doug Martin. The high turnover left the Broncos with the fewest returning starters in the country. In addition to the record-setting number of draftees, the team would be without the winningest quarterback in college football history, Kellen Moore.

While much of the preseason focus was spent on what the Broncos did not have, Boise State was ready to be led by sixth-year running back D.J. Harper and an opportunistic defense formed by players ready to live up to the standard set by those before them.

New faces, same results. The Broncos captured a share of the Mountain West Conference Championship, their first title in the team's second year in the league, and the fifth conference championship in seven seasons under head coach Chris Petersen.

Boise State was nationally-ranked in 12 of its 13 games in 2013, and finished the season 19th in the Bowl Championships Series Standings, 15th in the USA TODAY Coaches' Poll and 20th in the Associated Press Poll.

Boise State finished the year at 11-2, putting an exclamation point on its season with a 28-26 victory over Washington in the team's third-straight trip MAACO Bowl Las Vegas. The Broncos won the game in thrilling fashion, as senior kicker Michael Frisina nailed a 27-yard field goal with 1:16 left.

The 11 victories gave Boise State 10-or-more for seven-straight seasons, the only school in the country to accomplish the feat. Additionally, the Broncos' 23 seniors in 2012 became the 11th-consecutive class to win at least 40 games in their careers.

Thirteen members of the team were named to 2012 All-MW Teams, with five honored on the first team, four on the second team and four garnering honorable mention. Offensive lineman Matt Paradis joined a league-high four defensive players on the first team consisting of defensive linemen Mike Atkinson and Demarcus Lawrence, linebacker J.C. Percy and defensive back Jamar Taylor.

Matt Miller (WR), Charles Leno Jr. (OL), Brenel Myers (OL) and Jerrell Gavins (DB) were named All-MW Second Team, while D.J. Harper (RB), Jeremy Ioane (DB), Tommy Smith (LB) and Ricky Tjong-A-Tjoe (DL) were named honorable mention.

Taylor went on to become the second-highest drafted cornerback in school history, taken in the second round of the 2013 National Football League Draft – No. 54 overall – by the Miami Dolphins.

Taylor led a Bronco defense that, despite losing nine starters, ranked fifth-nationally in both pass defense (169.46) and pass efficiency defense (101.35), eighth-nationally in scoring defense (15.77), 11th-nationally in sacks (2.92) and 12th-nationally in total defense (315.62). The Broncos forced 36 turnovers in 2012, ranking fourth in the country. Included were 18 fumble recoveries – the most in the nation – and 18 interceptions, a mark that ranked tied for 12th-nationally.

2014 BOISE STATE BRONCOS

VIZIO Fiesta Bowl Champion; Mountain West Champion
12-2 (7-1 MW) | Final Rankings: No. 16 (AP), No. 16 (USA Today/Coaches), No. 20 (CFP)
Head Coach: Bryan Harsin

The 2014 campaign was to be a statement year for Boise State. Former quarterback and long-time Bronco assistant Bryan Harsin returned to The Blue from Texas to take the reins in his first season as head coach, and the Broncos were coming off of a 2013 slate in which they'd gone 8-5, the most losses for a Boise State squad since 1998.

After so many years as the nation's darlings, challenging and defeating the so-called "big boys" of the college football establishment, pundits and critics were wondering aloud if midnight had finally struck for Boise State's spot in the hierarchy of the game.

The season opened positively for the Broncos, who were 3-1 after four games, with the only setback being an opening-weekend loss to an Ole Miss team that would go as high as No. 3 in the rankings in the latter stages of the season. Yet the critics' whispers gained volume after the Broncos committed seven turnovers in a 28-14 loss at Air Force, thinking the Boise State mystique was lost.

But reports of Boise State's demise were greatly exaggerated, as Harsin and his charges came together and refocused. The Broncos, instead of giving in to the pressure and fear, rediscovered the fun of competition and, armed with the simple goal of "going 1-0 each week" went on to finish the campaign with nine-straight wins, with the final two capturing the Mountain West and VIZIO Fiesta Bowl titles, respectively.

The remarkable run was capped by a 38-30 victory over No. 10 Arizona in the VIZIO Fiesta Bowl on New Year's Eve, a victory that left no doubt that not only were the Broncos in the college football elite, but that they had never left. Wowing the national television audience with yet another touchdown on the Statue of Liberty play, as well as a 134-yard, three-touchdown rushing effort from All-America running back Jay Ajayi, Boise State for a third time successfully conjured up its Fiesta Bowl magic.

Twelve Broncos were honored with All-Mountain West recognition following the regular season, with Ajayi, STUD end Kamalei Correa, center Marcus Henry and safety Darian Thompson each being named to the first team. Donte Deayon (CB), Grant Hedrick (QB), Rees Odhiambo (OL) and Tanner Vallejo (LB) were all named to the second team, while Dan Goodale (PK), Beau Martin (DE), Jake Roh (TE) and Shane Williams-Rhodes (WR) all picked up honorable mention.

Ajayi netted seven All-America honors and was named a finalist for the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award following a season in which he became the first player in FBS history to accumulate 1,800 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards. The Plano, Texas native led the nation in touches with 397 (347 rushing attempts and 50 receptions), a figure that doubled as Boise State's single-season record. He set additional Boise State records with 1,823 rushing yards, 28 rushing touchdowns and 2,358 all-purpose yards, and his 32 total touchdowns tied for first.

Thompson would also earn All-America recognition, being named to the CBSSports.com Second Team. In 2014 Thompson shared the Mountain West lead and ranked third in the nation with seven interceptions, and led the Bronco secondary with 71 tackles.

2017 BOISE STATE BRONCOS

Las Vegas Bowl Champion; Mountain West Champion

11-3 (7-1 MW) | Final Rankings: No. 22 (Amway Coaches), No. 22 (AP), No. 25 (CFP)

Head Coach: Bryan Harsin

Two seasons without a conference title feels like ages for a Boise State program with a proud, storied history of filling its trophy case. Which is partially why the Broncos' 2017 Mountain West crown had to feel vindicating in more ways than one.

Perhaps it was because, en route to its title, the Broncos silenced doubters whose rumblings about the sun setting on Boise State's dominance of the Mountain West. Or, it was the manner in which, similar to its last championship season in 2014, Boise State overcame a healthy amount of early-season adversity and showed that reports of its demise had been greatly exaggerated.

Bronco fans and pundits alike wondered aloud about Boise State's up-and-down start to the campaign, which saw convincing victories over Troy and New Mexico but also crushing defeats at Washington State and on The Blue against Virginia. In Pullman in Week Two, Boise State led by 21 with just over 10 minutes to play before the Cougars rallied to tie the game, and went on to a 47-44 triple-overtime win. Two weeks later, the Broncos, after going up 7-0 with an opening-drive touchdown, were blitzed by the Cavaliers in a 42-23 loss.

After a bye, the Broncos scored 24-straight points after falling behind early at BYU, defeating the Cougars, 24-7. That set up a visit to San Diego State and a much-anticipated matchup against the Aztecs, who had captured the last two Mountain West titles and were being hailed by some as the new face of the conference. Boise State quickly squashed that narrative, suffocating the much-hyped Aztec running game, and scoring touchdowns on offense, defense, and special teams while cruising to an easy 28-14 victory.

Boise State rolled to seven-straight wins to start Mountain West play, highlighted by one memorable comeback. On Nov. 11 at Colorado State, the Broncos trailed the Rams, 35-10, with 2:26 left in the first half, and seemed to have no answers for the Ram attack. But, a touchdown before halftime, followed by another score on the second half's opening drive, got the Broncos to with 11 at 35-24. Trailing 52-45 with just under two minutes to go, the Broncos lined up for an onside kick, and, with a perfectly-executed boot, kicker Joel Velazquez got a high bounce over the top of the Ram line which was grabbed by a leaping Cedrick Wilson. The Broncos tied the game at 52-52 43 seconds later, and, after scoring on the opening possession of overtime, sealed the 59-52win as Leighton Vander Esch forced a Ram fumble which was recovered by Tyler Horton.

Despite a loss at Fresno State on the final week of the regular season, the Broncos came back in the Mountain West Championship Game a week later, as Wilson grabbed eight passes for 148 yards in the 17-14 Boise State win. Two weeks later, playing in the Las Vegas Bowl against Oregon, the Broncos ran out to a 24-0 lead and went on to a 38-28 win as quarterback Brett Rypien threw for 362 yards and two touchdowns, with Wilson being named the game's Most Valuable Player after pulling in 10 catches for 221 yards and a score.

It was a banner year for Wilson, who set Boise State's single-season record with 1,511 receiving yards on 83 catches, seven of which went for touchdowns. Vander Esch, meanwhile, was named Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year after racking up a team-high 141 tackles along with 4.0 sacks, 8.5 tackles-for-loss, three interceptions, and four forced fumbles. It was part of a Bronco defensive effort in which Vander Esch headlined nine Boise State defenders earning nine All-Mountain West honors.

2019 BOISE STATE BRONCOS

Mountain West Champion

12-2 (8-0 MW) | Final Rankings: No. 19 (CFP), No. 22 (Amway Coaches), No. 23 (AP)

Head Coach: Bryan Harsin

Boise State's 2019 campaign opened with a carryover of the chaos and scrambling that marked the end of 2018.

Stinging from an overtime loss at home in the 2018 Mountain West Championship Game followed by the cancellation of the SERVPRO First Responders Bowl midway through the first quarter, due to lightning, Boise State got little relief ahead of its opening weekend of the new season in Florida.

Just as the Broncos were boarding a flight to Jacksonville, where they were scheduled to face Florida State at TIAA Bank Field, word came down that the Aug. 31 contest would be moved to Tallahassee, played on the Seminoles' home field at Doak Campbell Stadium at 10 a.m. MT.

But the moving parts and adapting to last-minute change set a tone for the 2019 Bronco campaign, as Boise State calmly took things in stride, erasing a 12-point halftime deficit by outscoring the Seminoles, 17-0, in the second half on the way to a 36-31 victory.

Freshman quarterback Hank Bachmeier threw for 407 yards and a touchdown in his debut, sparking a six-game winning streak to open the season. Injuries, however, would catch up with the talented rookie, as he was limited to eight games, leading the Broncos with 1,879 passing yards while throwing nine touchdowns.

Boise State would use three quarterbacks over the campaign, due to injuries, as Chase Cord stepped in for two starts (Oct. 19 at BYU, Nov. 9 vs. Wyoming) before injuries forced him to give way to redshirt senior Jaylon Henderson. It would be Henderson who would capture the hearts of Bronco fans by going 4-0 in his four starts, leading the Broncos to wins in its final three games of the regular season to capture the Mountain Division, and capping the run with a 31-10 victory over Hawai'i in the Mountain West Championship Game at Albertsons Stadium on Dec. 7.

Overall, the Broncos would go 12-2 in 2019, matching its highest win total under head coach Bryan Harsin since his first season at the helm in 2014. Seventeen Broncos would go on to earn 19 All-Mountain West honors, with three Broncos, STUD Curtis Weaver (Defensive Player of the Year), PR Avery Williams (Special Teams Player of the Year), and RB George Holani (Freshman of the Year) taking home individual Mountain West awards.

Weaver would cap a memorable Bronco career with a campaign that netted him an astonishing nine All-America honors, three of those being of the first-team variety. The Long Beach, Calif., native was a disruptive force to opposing defenses, racking up 13.5 sacks and 18.5 tackles-for-loss. He would go on to be selected in the fifth rounf of the 2020 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins.

It was one of many highlights in a 2019 campaign which showcased the resiliency for which Boise State Football has come to be known, as the Broncos fought their way to a perfect 8-0 conference record for the first time since joining the Mountain West in 2011.

2023 BOISE STATE BRONCOS

Mountain West Champion
8-6 (6-2 MW)
Head Coach: Spencer Danielson

The 2023 season was one of the most dramatic years in Boise State's FBS history but it featured a championship game win that held little drama at all.

The Broncos opened with back-to-back losses, falling to No. 10 Washington before losing on a last-second field goal to UCF. Boise State rebounded with a pair of wins, including a conference-opening win at San Diego State. A three-point loss at Memphis was answered with a 20-point comeback win over San José State, but Boise State fell on another last-second score at Colorado State. A 32-7 win over Wyoming raised the Broncos back to .500, but an early November loss at Fresno State dropped the Broncos to 4-5 and left them facing a 0.1% chance to make the Mountain West Championship.

A coaching change lit the spark as then-defensive coordinator Spencer Danielson was elevated to the interim role, and a dominating 45-10 win at Utah State followed, but Boise State still needed help. Air Force, undefeated in league play, lost at Hawai'i. New Mexico went to Fresno and won there for the first time in 40 years. In the regular season finale, Boise State took care of business with a 27-19 win over Air Force on The Blue.

Still, a three-way tie for first between Boise State, San José State and UNLV remained, with the Rebels gaining the first spot and championship game hosting duties before Boise State would emerge as the other team, leading SJSU in the computer rankings by an average of 2.5 points.

The streaking Broncos added a fourth-consecutive win to the ledger with a dominating 44-20 win at UNLV for the program's fifth Mountain West Championship, rushing for 301 yards and limiting the Rebels to 298 total yards. Boise State wrapped up the season at 8-6 after a 35-22 loss to UCLA at the LA Bowl hosted by Gronk.

Mountain West Offensive Player of the Year Ashton Jeanty led the postseason honorees with six All-America accolades while James Ferguson-Reynolds, Andrew Simpson and Kage Casey (Freshman) also received All-America honors. In addition to the All-America selected, Cade Beresford and Ahmed Hassanein earned All-Mountain West First Team accolades. Ferguson-Reynolds, with an average of 49.7 yards per punt, was the national statistical champion in punting.

2024 BOISE STATE BRONCOS

Mountain West Champion

12-2 (7-0 MW) | Final Rankings: No. 8 (AP), No. 9 (US LBM Coaches), No. 9 (CFP)

Head Coach: Spencer Danielson

As college football entered a new era, one thing remained constant: a historic Boise State team being present on the national stage. The 2024 season marked the first year of the 12-team College Football Playoff, guaranteeing a national championship opportunity for a Group of 5 team. Running back Ashton Jeanty, lauded for his decision to remain a Bronco, was featured on multiple preseason watch lists and mentioned as a dark horse Heisman candidate. The Broncos were considered one of the top Group of 5 teams and were once again selected as the preseason Mountain West favorite.

A season-opening matchup at Georgia Southern offered Boise State the opportunity to make an early impression and it did just that. Jeanty ran for a school-record 267 yards and six touchdowns as the Broncos churned out 651 yards of offense en route to a 56-45 victory. One week later, Boise State took eventual Big Ten champion Oregon to the wire, losing to the No. 7/6 Ducks on a last-second field goal. When the Broncos returned to The Blue, they were welcomed by a sellout crowd that witnessed a 56-14 win over Portland State. Bronco Nation set the tone for the entire season, attaining six sellouts in six regular season games. Boise State returned to the national rankings before a Saturday night showdown against Washington State, which featured another legendary performance from Jeanty and the defense. The tailback solidified his place in the Heisman conversation with a 257-yard, four-touchdown effort, racking up 233 yards after contact. The relentless pass rush notched eight sacks and 11 tackles for loss against the Cougars, closing September with a 45-24 win.

Conference play began with more fireworks, as the Blue and Orange gained 599 yards in a 62-30 win over Utah State. A long-distance trip to Hawai'i was next, but the Broncos were ready, grinding out a 28-7 victory to set up a primetime showdown at UNLV. The Rebels led the heavyweight bout entering the final stanza, but a fourth-and-goal touchdown from Jeanty put the Broncos ahead, 29-24. That score stood for the remainder of the contest, as Boise State closed the game with a 14-play drive that spanned over eight minutes. The Broncos opened November with a 56-24 win over San Diego State. Maddux Madsen and Latrell Caples connected for three touchdowns and A'Marion McCoy had a pick-six, all in the first half, and Boise State was tabbed No. 12 in the initial CFP rankings. The following week was another slugfest, as Boise State outlasted Nevada, 28-21, behind another 200-yard effort from Jeanty. An early deficit at San Jose State was no issue for the Broncos, who scored 28 unanswered points to win, 42-21. A late November trip to Laramie saw Boise State escape with a 17-13 win over Wyoming, taking a late lead on a 2-yard touchdown from Breezy Dubar to clinch hosting duties for the Mountain West Championship. The Broncos capped the regular season with a 34-18 win over Oregon State on The Blue, climbing to No. 10 in the CFP rankings. The MW Championship was a rematch against No. 20 UNLV, with the winner projected to secure a spot in the CFP.

On a chilly Friday night, all eyes were on The Blue. A sellout crowd, Big Noon Kickoff, and Heisman voters were on hand to watch one of the biggest games in school history. Madsen and Caples connected for a 22-yard touchdown in the first quarter, then Madsen scrambled for a 14-yard score in the second quarter. With 40 seconds left in the half, Jeanty took a handoff 75 yards for his final touchdown as a Bronco, opening up a commanding 21-0 lead. Boise State's stout defense limited the Rebels to one touchdown in the second half, earning a 21-7 win. Bronco Nation stormed the field, tore down a goalpost and celebrated a landmark victory for the Blue and Orange. Two days later, the Broncos were tabbed the No. 3 seed in the CFP, earning a berth in the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl. Jeanty was named a finalist for the Heisman Trophy and took home the Doak Walker Award and Maxwell Award. The unanimous All-American finished as the Heisman Trophy runner-up in what was the closest race since 2009. Joining him on multiple All-America teams was left tackle Kage Casey, while Spencer Danielson was named AFCA Region 5 Coach of the Year.

The season came to a close at the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl, as the Broncos were defeated by Penn State, 31-14. Sixth year fullback Tyler Crowe and junior tight end Matt Lauter scored touchdowns for Boise State and senior defensive end Ahmed Hassanein collected 3.0 TFLs. Jeanty ended the season with 2,601 rushing yards, second-most in FBS single-season history. He was drafted sixth overall by the Las Vegas Raiders and Hassanein was selected in the sixth round by the Detriot Lions.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Randy Trautman
Induction Class of 1999

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Dave Wilcox
Induction Class of 2000

WILCOX, TRAUTMAN EARN FOOTBALL'S ULTIMATE HONOR

Former Bronco greats Dave Wilcox and Randy Trautman have more in common than their places in Boise State football lore and their inductions in the university's Athletic Hall of Fame.

The two have also achieved their sport's ultimate honor.

The former All-Americans played in different eras for Boise State, but they will be forever linked by their accomplishments on the field and their respective enshrinement in football's two halls of fame.

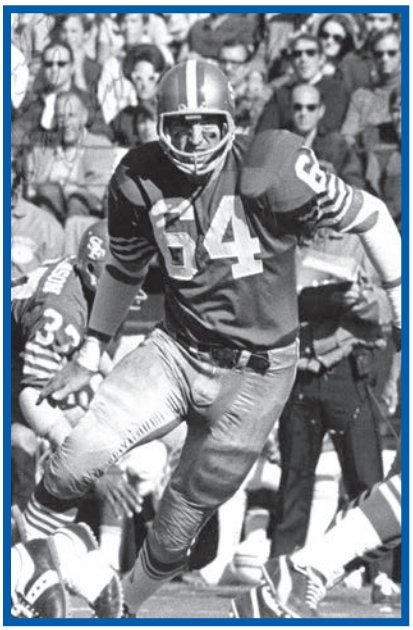
Wilcox, a two-way lineman for Boise Junior College in 1960 and '61, finished his collegiate career at Oregon and went on to become one of the top linebackers in NFL history, earning Pro Bowl honors seven times during his 11 years with the San Francisco 49ers. Wilcox retired from football in 1975, and in 2000 he was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Trautman, a defensive tackle for the Broncos from 1978-81 and Boise State's most honored football player, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1999.

Wilcox: Lyle Smith's Most Outstanding Player

Legendary BJC coach Lyle Smith called Wilcox the most outstanding player he coached during his 20 years at the Bronco helm, which is quite a compliment considering that Smith's program produced 21 JC All-Americans during his coaching tenure.

"He never had a second gear; he was in high gear all the way," said Smith of Wilcox. "He just went real hard at practice and in the games. I was not surprised that he did so well as a professional."

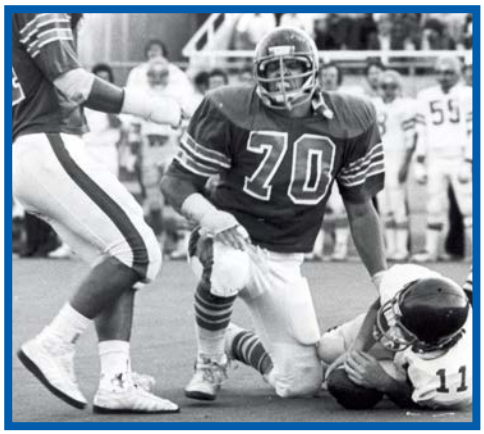


A native of Vale, Ore., Wilcox was a two-time junior college All-American on teams that finished 8-2 and 9-1 under Smith.

"I had more fun in Boise than anywhere else as far as playing football," said Wilcox, who also was a record-setting member of the BJC track team in the shot put and discus. "We had some outstanding players and excellent teams. Coach Smith is an outstanding person. He touched a lot of lives."

Wilcox will be inducted into the 49ers Hall of Fame in October of 2009, and in 1982 was inducted into Boise State's Athletic Hall of Fame.

Trautman: Key Member of 1980 National Championship Team



A native of Caldwell, Trautman was the first player from the state of Idaho to be named to the College Football Hall of Fame. He is the only Bronco football player to receive four first-team All-America awards after being named to both the Kodak and Associated Press Division I-AA All-America squads his junior and senior seasons.

A defensive stalwart on Boise State's 1980 NCAA Division I-AA national championship team, Trautman also received first-team All-Big Sky Conference honors that year and in 1981.

"That [national championship] ring brought us together like a marriage," said Trautman of the 1980 Broncos. "We sweated, we bled, we beat on each other, and we went through it all together. We tasted something together very few have tasted."

Trautman finished his career at Boise State with 266 total tackles, including 29 for losses. He was selected in the ninth round of the NFL draft by the Washington Redskins and played for the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League from 1982-85. He was inducted into Boise State's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1990.

Fierce Competitors

Both Wilcox and Trautman were known as fierce competitors who relished the challenge of playing football at the highest levels.

Now that Wilcox is among pro football's elite, feigned humility seems unnecessary.

"You have to know you're good if you're playing in the NFL," he said. "When you go up against guys like [offensive linemen] Bob Brown, Forrest Gregg, Ron Yary and Tom Mack; tight ends like John Mackey, Mike Ditka and Ron Kramer; and then have to chase down runners like Gale Sayers for 11 seasons, you can't be lacking in confidence in your ability."

Trautman was known for sometimes being testy during his playing days with Boise State, but it was a result, he says, of his burning desire to succeed.

"I've always been competitive in everything I do," he said. "I know I wasn't easy to get along with. We came to win, and if you're not playing to win, then you're in the wrong program. If people thought I was [trying to be] intimidating, it wasn't that. I just wanted to see their enthusiasm and their goals directed to winning."

Their careers at Boise State were 20 years apart, but hall of famers Dave Wilcox and Randy Trautman have plenty in common besides their membership among football's best.

LYLE SMITH FIELD AT ALBERTSONS STADIUM

The home of Boise State football has seen many changes. Growing from an original seating capacity of 14,500 and a green AstroTurf field, to a current capacity of 32,636 and the now famous Blue field.

In 2014, after being known for the past 44 years as Bronco Stadium (II), one of the great home fields in college football was changed to Albertsons Stadium. The change was made after Albertson's LLC committed $12.5 million over 15 years for the naming rights to the stadium.

While the name on the outside of the stadium has changed, the name on the field remains the same. Lyle Smith Field is named after the undisputed "father" of Bronco football. From from 1946 through 1967, Lyle Smith built one of the top junior college programs in the country. When he retired from his head coaching position to become the athletic director at Boise State, Smith had produced a record of 156-25-6 (.850).

The current stadium was completed during the summer of 1970 at a cost of $2.2 million and has expanded four times. The last expansion was completed during the summer of 2012 when permanent steel bleachers were installed in the north and south end zones. Seating in the north end zone was increased to 3,750 while the south was increased to 5,000 at a cost of $3.1 million.

Prior to the 2008 season, the stadium received its third major expansion with the completion of the Stueckle Sky Center. The four-level, $35.9 million facility includes loge, club and luxury suite seating, along with a state-of-the-art press box.

The second major expansion came in 1997 when capacity was increased to 30,000 when seating was added in the southwest and southeast corners, construction of the Allen Noble Hall of Fame Gallery and completion of the Larry and Marianne Williams Plaza at a cost of $10 million.

Albertsons Stadium was first expanded to 20,000 in 1974 when the east side upper deck was added. Portable end zone seating brought the capacity to 22,600 through the 1996 season. Prior to the 2023 season, a new videoboard was installed in the south end zone, as well as new LED lights.

Boise State established a first in 1986 by installing the country's first blue AstroTurf field. The second blue AstroTurf field was installed in 1995, with the third prior to the 2002 season. The first blue FieldTurf surface was installed in 2008. A second blue FieldTurf field was installed prior to the 2010 season, and a third prior to the 2019 season, making a total of six different blue fields at the stadium.

Boise State's was the first collegiate stadium to have the entire field produced in a special color. There were two previous green AstroTurf fields installed at Albertsons Stadium prior to 1986. The first was during the original construction of the current stadium in 1970, with the second installed prior to the 1978 season.

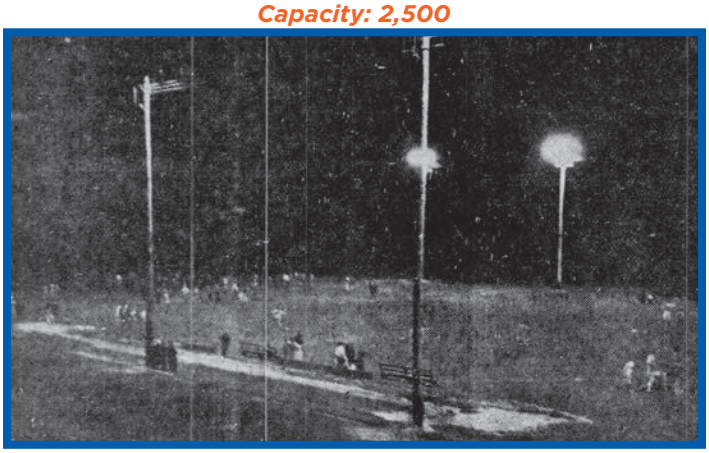
PUBLIC SCHOOL FIELD

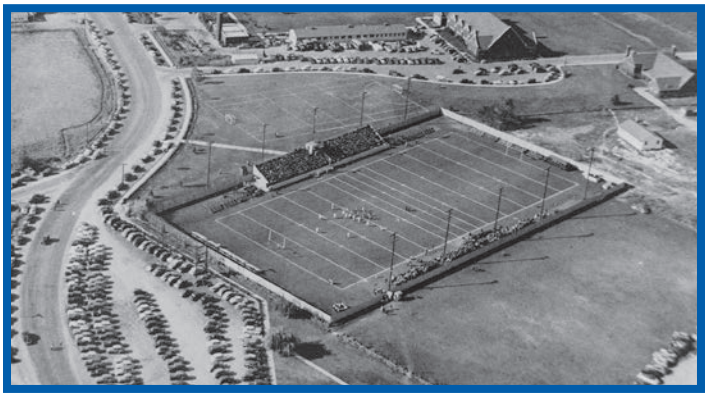
(1933-39)
15-12-1 (.554)
Capacity: 2,500



Public School Field was the first home to Bronco football, back when then-Boise Junior College was located at its original campus downtown. Public School Field, originally the home field of Boise High School, saw improvements as Boise JC began play, including the installation of lights in 1935. Home of the Broncos from 1933 to 1939 with a capacity of 2,500, Public School Field also was the site of the Broncos' 1947 game against the University of Idaho Freshmen team (a 19-12 Bronco win), which would also mark the first time a Boise football game aired live on the radio (KDSH 950 AM in Boise). The Broncos would post a record of 15-12-1 (.554) over the 7+ years playing at Public School Field. The stadium was located at the site of where Dona Larsen Park currently stands.

COLLEGE FIELD

(1940-49)
24-5 (.828)
Capacity: 1,000



After the college moved to its present campus along the southern banks of the Boise River in 1940, College Field opened in September of 1940 with a 14-7 win over Carroll (Mont.) College. College Field was the home of Bronco football through the end of the decade until the team moved to Bronco Stadium I in 1950, but would host the team once more with a 46-6 win over Chaffey JC in 1951. In the 1950s, it became the baseball field. College Field was located at the current site of the university's Student Union Building, which opened in 1967. The Broncos posted an exemplary record of 24-5 (.828) in their decade of play at College Field.

BRONCO STADIUM I

(1950-69)
91-11-4 (.877)
Capacity: 10,000

Bronco Stadium I was build in three months in 1950 at the east end of campus with wooden grandstands, a natural grass playing field, lights and a cinder running track with a capacity of 10,000. It was located in the same location as current-day Albertsons Stadium but with a field that was aligned northwest to southeast. The 45 degree offset angle to the current field alignment was designed to keep the mid-afternoon son of October bout of the players' eyes, but put it into the eyes of half of the spectators.

In its time at Bronco Stadium I, the Broncos upgraded from a junior college program to four-year status and moved from the JuCo ranks to become an independent member of NAIA. Following the 1969 season - Boise's final year in NAIA and as an independent program, Bronco Stadium I was razed and the then-named Bronco Stadium II (now Albertsons Stadium) was built in less than 10 months. Before Bronco Stadium I was razed, the Broncos compiled a record of 91-11-4 (.877) over two decades of play.

BRONCO STADIUM II
(1986; The First Blue Field)
Record on The Blue: 212-45 (.825)

Boise State became the first college football program nationwide to have a non-green football field when the Broncos unveiled their blue turf field on Sept. 13, 1986. The first game on "The Blue" was a dominating 74-0 win over Humboldt State in front of 17,465 fans. Since then, the blue turf has become an iconic symbol of Boise State football.

That first game was celebrated in the perfect fashion. Pieces of royal blue Astroturf were given to the first 5,000 Boise State fans, a blue hot-air baloon was hanging over the stadium and a special orange football was used in that first game.

Since that first game in 1986, many rumors have swirled and millions have talked about The Blue, but you cannot deny the facts - the Broncos continue to win at home. Entering the 2025 season, Boise State has compiled a 212-45 (.825) record on The Blue.

FACT OR FICTION?

Fiction

After the NCAA office learned of the blue turf, a regulation was written into the national rule book that banned any other non-green artificial turfs. The Bronco field, however, was grandfathered in as being able to stay blue.

Fact

A Bronco blue and orange football was used for the opening kickoff of the first game on the original Blue turf in 1986.

Fiction

Ducks and geese misjudge The Blue for a lake, thus crashing mistakenly onto the turf. Many patient Bronco fans have taken pictures of his unnatural phenomenon.

Fact

The Blue has been called "Smurf Turf" after the popular cartoon characters from the 1980s; however, opponents have learned that it is not nearly as friendly.
